Notes for Examining Physician

Weight.—Males, without clothing, and also in ordinary clothing without overcoat or hat (weigh twice); females, clothed, but without wrap or hat. If overweight, state whether due to bone and muscle or to fat.

Негонт.—Without boots or shoes; observe that no appliances are used to increase. The examination should include the following observations:

- 1. Eyes.—Ptosis; discharge; corneal scar; pterygium. In recording distant vision consider 20 feet as normal and report all vision as a fraction with 20 feet as numerator and the smallest type read at 20 feet as denominator. If glasses are used, record for each eye the finding with and without glasses. Near vision must be reported. In testing vision without glasses the applicant or appointee should be instructed to remove the glasses at least one-half hour before testing uncorrected.
- 2. Ears.—Evidence of middle ear or mastoid disease; condition of drums; discharge. In recording hearing, record 20 feet as normal distance for conversational voice and record deviation from normal as fraction with 20 as denominator and actual distance as numerator.

3.: Nose.—Ability to blow through each nostril... If free, a. speculum examination would not be indicated.

4. Mouth and throat.—Missing teeth, pyorrhea; tonsils, hypertrophy or disease.

5. Gastro-intestinal.—Ulcers, inflammations, etc.

6. Thyroid.—Presence of tumor in neek and tremor, exophthalmos; nervous high-strung disposition, especially in

9. Hernia.—Give details as to size, location, etc., and whether well-fitting truss is worn. Inguinal hernia exists when ring is enlarged and on coughing visceral impulse is felt which follows the finger on withdrawal.

10. Varicocele.—If varicocele is present, state approximate size—e. g., size of walnut, lemon, etc.

11. Flat foot of such a nature as to incapacitate or become agravated by work or be alleged later to have been caused by accident or occupation. By "flat foot," as used in this form, is meant a weak foot with impaired function, the term being equivalent to "fallen or misplaced arch," an abnormal condition. Impairment of function is the point to be noted. An anatomically flat foot, but strong, is not disqualifying.

12 and 13. Scars, deformities, atrophies, and paralyses should be noted, but it is not important that small insignificant scars or blemishes which might be referred to as marks of identification be recorded.

have known DONALD all of his life and he is a fine young man. He comes from good stock and would be a credit to any organization." He said also that MOORE was from a family that was sufficiently well off that he had never had to do any work as a boy but that this had not hurt him. Mr. GILLET said there was no question about applicant's loyalty as an American.

Mr. A. J. NELSON, Principal of Oketo High School, stated he has known applicant since he was twelve years old and can testify as to his ability, honesty, and patriotism. Further, he has a knack of getting along with people and everyone who knows him likes him. During his years at school he was very good in both basketball and tennis, and about average in baseball. Mr. NELSON exhibited MOORE'S school records which show: B average; attendance very good.

AT MARYSVILLE, KANSAS

Dr. Q. P. WOOD, physician (formerly of Oketo) a reference, stated he was the attending doctor when applicant was born in July of 1918. He was the MOORES family physician andhas attended applicant during his few illnesses, which were never serious as he has always enjoyed the best of health generally speaking. Further that MOORE was a fine person, very sociable, clean in his habits, honest, and patriotic. "He springs from Quaker Stock. I can not recommend this man too highly as he is a very reliable and capable person and would be a credit to the Bureau."

Mr. GHARLES A. ANDERSON, Marshal for Marysville, Kansas, when interviewed concerning possible criminal record for MOORE, stated there was none. Mr. ANDERSON said "You won't find any on that boy. I've known him since he was born and there is not a finer person anywhere." Further he has been acquainted with applicant's family and they are very splendid and substantial citizens.

Sheriff CLYDE WELLS, Sheriff for Marshall County, states there is no criminal record on applicant.

AT MANHATTAN, KANSAS

Mr. F. V. BERGMAN, Principal of Manhattan High School, stated he remembered applicant very well and he had entered Manhattan in the fall of 1935 and was graduated in June, 1936. While in attendance there he was very outstanding, both athletically and scholastically, which is not always the case with good athletes, and, therefore, he made a good impression upon the faculty. Mr. BERGMAN said applicant had been very popular with the student body, especially so for a newcomer, and at the end of the year he was singled out for honors for his ability as a football player, and was voted "number one man." A review of the records disclosed the following: B average; attendance very good.

Chief ARTHUR SCHELEEN, Manhattan Police Department, stated that a review of the police files reflected no criminal record on applicant.

good personality, was of good appearance, had many friends and could make them easily, was honest, possessed perfect health, and was an all-around good fellow. CIARKE said that he was very happy when his son picked Applicant as a friend and admirer, because he regarded Applicant as one of the finest fellows in the fraternity. CLARKE said he had never talked over the European War, but he knew Applicant was loyal and trustworthy. No criticism was made of Applicant, and he was given an unqualified recommendation.

Mr. O. R. COX, 809 "P" Street, said he had known Applicant very well for the last three years. COX is alumni adviser for Applicant's fraternity and, therefore, has had close contact with Applicant in a social and a semi-business way. COX regarded Applicant as one of the best men to ever join his fraternity. He said he was serious, a leader, temperate, moral, picked only the best of associates, was honest and current in all financial obligations, was without question loyal to the Government of the United States, possessed a good personality, and was the type who was not too talkative. COX had no criticism to offer of Applicant, saying he was an extremely well balanced, all-around fellow.

NEIGHBORHOOD INVESTIGATION

Mrs. MAE M. McGEER SHMITTEL, House Mother of Kappa Sigma Fraternity, advised she had known Applicant very well for the last four or five years. She said Applicant had impressed her the first time he came into the fraternity because of personality and demeanor. Applicant was one of the leaders of the fraternity and, therefore, it was necessary for Mrs. SHMITTEL to see him daily. She said that she could classify him as a perfect gentleman, cooperative, prompt in his pay, moral and temperate, of very good health, neat in dress and appearance, very serious and studious yet full of fun at the proper time, of a fine family and without question a loyal American. Mrs. SHMITTEL said Applicant had often told her that if it should ever become his duty to join the Army or Navy, he would not hesitate to go because he felt that the American type of Government was a type worthy of protection and sacrifice. Mrs. SHMITTEL also commented on the respectful manner in which Applicant treated his parents. She regarded Applicant as one of the two finest individuals of his fraternity, and recommended him without criticism to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Further neighborhood investigation was not made at Applicant's fraternity because all members had left town over Washington's Birthday.

EMPLOYER INVESTIGATION

After repeated unsuccessful attempts to personally contact Mr. IRVING ROSEWELL, he was contacted by telephone at his place of business, 124 South 13th Street. Mr. ROSEWELL said Applicant had worked for him for approximately the last four or five years, and that he regarded Applicant as the outstanding individual to work for him during this time. Applicant was characterized as honest, reliable, trustworthy, good at meeting the public, cooperative, alert, energetic, and without question patriotic. ROSEWELL said Applicant had handled considerable funds for him during the past few years, and that every cent had been properly accounted for. ROSEWELL said Applicant could have a job with him any time he wished, and recommended him highly to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

SCHOLASTIC AND R. O. T. C. INVESTIGATION

At the University of Nebraska Registrar's Office, Miss RUTY ERICKSON advised Applicant entered said school September, 1936, and graduated in June of 1940 with an A.P. degree. During this period, Applicant maintained a scholarship which was above average. Applicant is now enrolled in his second year of Law School. Hisscholarship is above average, and no disciplinary marks are recorded for either his law or undergraduate work. The records of said school reflect Applicant's birth date as July, 1918, and the place as Oketo, Kansas.

From Colonel C. A. THUIS, Commanding Officer of the R.O.T.C. work at the University of Nebraska, it was ascertained that Applicant is presently studying R.O.T.C. work at said institution, and the Colonel classified him as a very good boy. His R.O.T.C. record was average or better, and the Colonel recommended him as a well balanced serious fellow.

CREDIT AND POLICE INVESTIGATION

Miss CLARA ARONSON of the Nebraska Credit Company, 555 National Bank of Commerce Building, advised that Applicant had a credit classification of satisfactory.

EVERETT RUDISIL of the Lincoln Police Department, and Sergeant L. C. REGLER of the University of Nebraska Police Department, stated Applicant had no criminal record.

Special Agent MARTIN N. ERCK Investigation

Special Agent MARTIN N. ERCK of the Seattle Office, presently residing at 1805 Summer Street, advised he had known Applicant very well for the last two or three years. ERCK knew Applicant as a fraternity brother, and student at the University of Nebraska Law School. ERCK said that he knew of no one whom he would recommend higher than Applicant. He described Applicant as moral, of splendid appearance, one who totally abstains from alcohol and tobacco, possessing a good personality, of good health, cooperative, intelligent and without doubt thoroughly patriotic. ERCK said Applicant was just one fellow you couldn't criticise and gave him an unqualified recommendation.

Humbly recognizing the responsibilities entrusted to me, I do vow that I shall always consider the high calling of law enforcement to be an honorable profession, the duties of which are recognized by me as both an art and a science. I recognize fully my responsibilities to defend the right, to protect the weak, to aid the distressed, and to uphold the law in public duty and in private living. I accept the obligation in connection with my assignments to report facts and to testify without bias or display of emotion, and to consider the information, coming to my knowledge by virtue of my position as a sacred trust, to be used solely for official purposes. To the responsibilities entrusted to me of seeking to prevent crime, of finding the facts of law violations and of apprehending fugitives and criminals, I shall give my loyal and faithful attention and shall always be equally alert in striving to acquit the innocent and to convict the guilty. In the performance of my duties and assignments. I shall not engage in unlawful and unethical practices but shall perform the functions of my office without fear, without favor, and without prejudice. At no time shall I disclose to an unauthorized person any fact, testimony, or information in any pending matter coming to my official knowledge which may be calculated to prejudice the minds of existing or prospective judicial bodies either to favor or to disfavor any person or issue. While occupying the status of a law enforcement officer or at any other time subsequent thereto, I shall not seek to benefit personally because of my knowledge of any confidential matter which has come to my attention. I am aware of the serious responsibilities of my office and in the performance of my duties I shall, as a minister, seek to supply comfort, advice and aid to those who may be in need of such benefits; as a soldier, I shall wage vigorous warfare against the enemies of my country, of its laws, and of its principles; and as a physician, I shall seek to eliminate the criminal parasite which preys upon our social order and to strengthen the lawful processes of our body politic. I shall strive to be both a teacher and a pupil in the art and science of law enforcement. a lawyer, I shall acquire due knowledge of the laws of my domain and seek to preserve and maintain the majesty and dignity of the law; as a scientist, it will be my endeavor to learn all pertinent truth about accusations and complaints which come to my lawful knowledge; as an artist, I shall seek to use my skill for the purpose of making each assignment a masterpiece; as a neighbor, I shall bear an attitude of true friendship and courteous respect to all citizens; and as an officer, I shall always be loyal to my duty, my organization, and my country. I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic: I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same, and will constantly strive to cooperate with and promote cooperation between all regularly constituted law enforcement agencies and officers in the performance of duties of mutual interest and obligation.

Moore is 22 years of age, single, and a life-long resident of the State of Kansas, although for the past several years he has attended school in Nebraska. He states he has no practical knowledge of a foreign language, but could develop his Epunish to a practical stage with a reasonable amount of study or contact with the language.

Hr. Hicks states that this man is a little above average, has a good perponality and has average intelligence. Mr. Hicks believes that in view of his youth he will require close supervision but should do a good job.

The counselor states the can has a good personal appearance and personality, is aggressive but somewhat slow in action. The counselor feels that because of his youth he will develop rather slowly but that he will definitely be an average Agent.

One instructor states he has a good appearance and personality, is self-confident, alert, and should become a good average Agent. The instructor characterizes him as keen and intelligent.

Mr. Morley advises me that despite Loore's youth he has considerably more poise than most members of his class and that he has a very good personal appearance and personality. He is a good conversationalist and it is believed that with a few years' experience in the field, he should be definitely of supervisory caliber.

Very truly yours,

Moore's grades were slightly above average and his firearms scores were slightly below average during the training course. He has a good personality and average intelligence. Despite his youth, he has considerably more poise than most trainees. It is felt that with close supervision in the field, he will develop and it is believed that with experience in the field, he will demonstrate supervisory ability. Attention should be paid to his development along these lines.

DOMALD E. MOCRE

I am the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, has been designated by the President to take charge of investigative work in matters relating to espienage, sabetage and violations of the neutrality regulations. This Dureau is also charged with the duty of investigating other matters bearing upon the maintenance of the internal security of the United States. The duties thus imposed upon this Dureau constitute a vital function in the national defense program of this country. At the present time this Dureau is required by Act of Congress to expand its personnel in order effectively to discharge the important duties devolving upon it.

bonald E. Roro is a trained Special Agent and has been continuously employed by the Federal Eureau of Investigation since Larch 10, 1741. He cannot be replaced satisfactorily because of the shortage of persons with his qualifications and experience in such activity, and his removal for induction would cause natorial loss of effectiveness in the conduct of the national defense work of the Federal Eureau of Investigation. Extreme difficulty is being experienced at present in obtaining a sufficient number of qualified applicants to take care of the increasing expansion of this Tureau and it is impossible to consider a replacement of any individual for this reason. Turnover of personnel is extremely detrimental to efficiency, as trained and experienced numbers of the staff, such as IonaldE. Loore, must form the nucleus of the expanded staff which this Eureau must recruit in order to fulfill its function, and therefore it is suggested that he be given Classification II-B.

Special Agent in Charge Buffalo, New York

Dear Sir:

The Eureau has today issued orders transferring Special Agent D. E. Moore from the New York City Office to your division.

I want to advice you that this agent, while assigned to the New York Office, resided in a large apartment development in which a number of other Special Agents resided. The activities of some of the Agents residing in this apartment have been the cause of considerable embarrassment to the Bureau and drastic administrative action has been taken in several cases.

Agent Koore was not involved in any of the embarrassing activities of the agents residing in this apartment development; however, he undoubtedly had knowledge of the activities of the other Agents and he took no steps to advise the Bureau of these activities and they were ascertained through outside sources. It is therefore my desire that the progress of this Agent be carefully supervised by you and that you give personal attention to any activities which might result in embarrassment to the Bureau at a later date. Particular mention should be made by you in your efficiency reports on this Agent as to the manner in which he has conducted himself during his period of assignment in your office.

Mr. Egan states all female residents at this apartment are probably of the same type. Mr. Egan recommends a suspension for running around with Lucy Leake, 10 day suspension probably.

Mr. Egan stated that Lucy Leake and Carole Hilley ane both of the same type and any Agent who admits running around with either can be classed, probably, as running around with questionable women.

G. A. G. Coffman

EOD September 17, 1936, as clerk and EOD as Special Agent on August 1, 1939, 27 years of age, salary $3800 and single. Came to the New York Office on February 4, 1940, was away for a time and came back on January 7, 1941 and his Office of Preference is Los Angeles. Mr. Egan stated that he is really a shiek, knows them all and the only Agent who knew the name Mary Lou Kelly, claims he met her once, knows a girl named Juley who is now married about a week ago to some other fellow that hangs around there. He knows Carol Hille very well, believed her to be an employee in the Dept of Justice, was in her apartment several times but never alone. Mr. Egan stated this in her statement she claims that he was alone with her drinking scotch and He also visited her at the hospital and guaranteed her at the hospital. He has seen her on three ocassions, by his own admission, since he knew that she was not connected with the Dept. of Justice. He met her after the Bureau had opened an Impersonation Case on her, also introduced her to Agents either directly or by inference that she is connected with the Dept. of Justice. On the strenght of his recommendation she got credit at the hoppital and she has not paid the bill to date. He said that he did not believe that she was violating the Impersonation Statue after Mr. Egan had him tell him the elements. She also told him that she is a cousin of Count Felix Von Lauckner. Mr. Egan stated that on August 6, at 3:00 AM, he received a call from her at the hotel but was not completed and when he came down stairs in the morning about 8:00 AM there was a notice in his box to call Lois Davis at the Belmont Hotel. Mr. Egan stated that he claims that he did not call this number until 9:30 and he found out immediately that it was Carol Hille and he stated that he advised her to come to the Office as we had two Agents looking for her. Mr. Egan stated that he failed to call anyone at the Office to tell them where she was located. Mr. Egan said that his reason for this was that he hoped she would come in of her own free will. He then told Mr. Egan that it did not occur that he call the office and in the afternoon when he went to the Office aroung 3:30 he checked with the receptionist to see if this girl had called, he also went out in the room where the Agents charge out cards are and he checked Agent Gleason's card who was assigned to the case to see if he had been to the Belmont Hotel. Immediately after Hille was questioned by Mr. Sackett and amother Agent of the New York Office Coffman talked to her over the telephone. Mr. Egan stated that he is recommending dismissal with prejudice on Coffman.

He did not associate with any women at the hotel and minds his own business.

He knew Lucy Leake, knew her roommate Kate Ferguson, knew Carol Hille and believed her to be with the Department of Justice. He had dates for dinner with Margo Cole, girlfriend of Coffmans several times and once alone, he might have been in her apartment alone with her but does not remember. Both Leake and Ferguson have been at his apartment together, not alone. Mr. Egan stated that he believed this Agent should be suspended also.

He only knew the girlfriend of Coffmans, Margo Cole, she was at his apartment on two or three ocassions with Coffman but he had nothing to do with anybody else in the hotel. Mr. Egan gave no recommendation on him.

He knew Leake, Ferguson and Hille, Coffman told him that Hille was with the Department of Justice and he was in her apartment a couple of times for a few minutes, he helped her up stairs when her leg hurt her and took her just inside of her apartment and when she got him inside she showed him some flowers her boss sent her but he then left immediately. He knows the Cole girl, Coffman's friend, and had several dates with Marion Pedilla who is the roommate of Miss Cole. Mr. Egan stated that he thought this fellow should be suspended for ten days for running around with these women.

He knows Leake, was on the same swimming party that he was on and he met her around the apartment and in the drugstore, he knows Margo Cole, the girl friend of Coffmans. Mr. Egan stated that he believed he should have a five or ten day suspension.

He knows Margo Cole and Hille. He was of the opinion that Hille was with the Department of Justice, had a date one night with Hille and took her to a picture show, was in Miss Cole's apartment once with others but never alone. Mr. Egan stated that he believes he should be suspended for running around with Hille for ten days.

He knows Leake, Ferguson, had one date with Carol Hills when he took her out to the beach when she got all burned and had to go to the hospital. He says she called him on the phone several times and he called on her one time in the hospital and he had given her his radio. He says after the first day at the beach with her he was almost sure she was not with the Dept of Justice. He said that she impressed him as being of loose morals. He knows Miss Cole and was at her apartment with Coffman, knows a girl named Juley and he also knows Marion Pedilla, the roommate of of Miss Cole. Mr. Egan stated that he believed that this Agent, in view of all he knew, should have a 15 or 30 days suspension.

Mr. Ecan stated that he asked each about Hille's connection with Polly Adler and they denied that they knew any connection at all. He stated that he asked every Agent, as they signed their statements, if they were in the cocktail lounge last night and everyone of them denied that they were in there at all last night.

Mr. Ecan stated that there is a Doctor Mylan Kuna, chiropractor, who seems to be the most active in introducing all of these women to the different Agents. He stated that he believed that the Bureau should conduct an investigation on him. I told him to tell Mr. Sackett to do that.

Mr. Egan stated he talked to Carole Hille this morning. He didn't obtain much additional information which is not  $\infty$  ntained in the statement. She told Mr. Egan he shouldn't forget the Agents were human and must run around with women. She admitted being a call girl for Polly Adler for five weeks in December, 1940 and January, 1941. She said she met former Attorney General Murphy through the Assistant Attorney General to whom she was engaged. She said when she was in the hospital this Assistant Attorney General broke the engagement.

He stated that each Agent submitted a signed statement containing the information outlined above.

He further advised that it appears that Agents in rather large numbers are going to the beach on Saturday afternoons and Sundays.

Mr. Egan stated he was staying at the Martinique Hotel. I told him I would advise him as soon as possible as to whether your contact in New York had been able to make any identification from the photographs sent to him today of Agents alleged to have been in the Beaux Arts bar last night in an intoxicated condition. Coffman is under Sackett, as is Franklin. He inquired whether he should mention to Sackett and Connelley the fact that they should have known of this condition. I told him to do so by all means.

RE: SPECIAL AGENT D. E. MOORE

Dear Sir:

The following special efficiency report is submitted in view of the transfer of the above named Agent to the Buffalo Field Division. New York was the first office of assignment for this Agent, he having reported here on May 10, 1941.

While he presents somewhat of a youthful appearance, he dresses with good taste, creates a favorable first impression. He is mature in manner and has a steady, even-tempered disposition. He applied himself enthusiastically to his duties and developed for a newAgent in an entirely satisfactory manner. His assignments were the general run of Bureau assignments, including applicants, and he produced a good volume of work. He developed good dictation ability for a newAgent, his rough draft reports were submitted in good order, and he possesses average typing ability.

He is qualified in the use of firearms, is amenable to discipline, and seems to be thoroughly interested in his work and all in all made entirely satisfactory progress and should develop into a good desirable Agent.

Re: Special Agent D. E. MOORE

Forty-five Day Efficiency Report

Dear Sir:

Special Agent D. E. Moore reported on August 18, 1941.

Agent Moore presents a good appearance, is invariably neat in his dress, and has a likable, quiet personality. He is well liked by other employees in the office. He is cooperative and helpful in his relations with the other employees.

This agent has handled all types of cases in the Buffalo Division and has for the past three weeks been assigned to the investigation of an attempted train wreck sabotage case. His assignments have been handled satisfactorily and, I would say, somewhat above average for an agent of his experience. He uses good judgment and appears to be more mature than his age would indicate. He is enthusia astic and takes criticism in the best manner. He has no objection ato overtime work and is amenable to discipline. His rough draft reports have required a minimum of supervision and his dictation is good. His ability with firearms is satisfactory, and I would not hesitate to give him a dangerous assignment.

Agent Moore's work appears to be he is developing probably more rapidly than the is nothing to indicate his development will not he will become a better than average agent.

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

WIT, Gillespie

Under date of September 11, 1941, I forwarded to the Bureau copies of letters I directed to Special Agents D. J. Williams, D. E. Moore, E. J. Powers, G. E. Nanna, R. T. Wilchman, J. Q. Merris, J. J. Hurley, W. F. Caldwell, and former Agent O. W. Franklin, regarding rental statements received at this office for them from the Beauth Arts Apartments, claiming rent due to September 15th.

To date I have received the following information from the Agents regarding these matters:

Special Agent G. E. Nanna, under date of September 12th, advised that he was that date sending a check in the sum of $20.53 in full settlement of the bill directed to himself and Agent Hickman. This bill therefore has been taken care of.

Under date of September 12th, Agent D. J. Williams sent me a copy of a letter he addressed to the Beaux Arts Apartments, enclosing a check for $38.39, in full settlement of the bill directed to himself and former Agent O. W. Franklin. This bill has therefore been disposed of.

Under date of September 13, 1941, Special Agent E. J. Powers advised that he had made arrangements with D. E. Moore so that Mr. Moore would send a check for the balance of the ment due as soon as the bill was received.

Under date of September 15th, Mr. Moore advised by letter that he had sent a check to the Beaux Arts for $17.83, covering his share of the rent due. The total bill directed to Messrs. Powers and Moore was $35.56, therefore the balance of $17.83 is still due. I am writing to Agent Powers, advising him of the fact that Agent Moore only sent $17.83 to the Beaux Arts, and suggesting that he arrange to handle the matter with Moore so that the entire bill is paid. A copy of this letter is enclosed herewith.

The State of the State of

Pins

Director

The statement submitted to Special Agents J. J. Hurley and W. T. Gillespie by the Beaux Arts in the sum of $20.00 has been paid by Agent Gillespie, according to advice received by the National Defense Unit of this office on September 17, 1941. This, therefore, takes care of that bill.

A bill directed to Agents W. F. Caldwell, E. J. Younger, and J. Q. Harris in the sum of $65.00, apparently is still unpaid. The bill was called to the attention of all three Agents, as the Bureau knows, and advice has been received from both Agents Harris and Caldwell that they feel the bill was unjustified, and they do not owe this rental, inasmuch as they feel that the thirty-day notice to cancel the lease as applying to all three tenants operated with the giving of notice on August 4th by Agent Harris. Apparently this bill has not been paid and no word has been received from Special Agent E. J. Younger by the National Defense Unit to which he was assigned here. I note that the Bureau has already written to Mr. Harris advising him that the matter should be promptly and satisfactorily concluded. It is suggested that the Bureau write to all three Agents at this time and request that the $65.00 bill be taken care of immediately.

In this connection I received a telephone call on September 27th from one R. C. Walker, connected with the Pan American Airways, who is the present tenant occupying apartment 1805 North at the Beaux Arts, which was occupied by Caldwell, Younger and Harris. He had been referred to me by the apartment manager in connection with his desire to purchase from the Agents some chairs and tables which the Agents apparently bought and which are in storage at the building. I informed Mr. Walker that he should keep in contact with the building manager and that the former tenants would communicate their desires in the matter either to himself or to the building manager which has custody of the furniture. It is suggested that this matter be called to the attention of Agents Caldwell, Younger and Harris for their action and consideration.

Deer Mr. Powers:

regarding the bill in the sum of $35.56 submitted by the Beaux Arts Apartments to yourself and Agent Donald E. Moore, and note that you claim that arrangements were made between Agent Moore and yourself so that he would send a check for the amount of the bill as soon as it was received.

for your information, I have received a letter from Agent Moore under date of September 15th, advising that he sent a check in the sum of $17.83 representing his share of the rental, to the Beaux Arts Spartments, and that he felt sure that you would also send a check for your share.

Instanch as apparently $17.83 is still due on the bill and Mr. Moore is under the impression that this sum is owed by you, will you please advise me immediately just what action you intend to take about the matter in order to bring it to a conclusion.

A copy of this letter is being sent to Agent Moore, and to the Bureau, and it is requested that a copy of your reply be directed to the Bureau.

Dear Mr. Hurley:

Reference is made to your communication of September 12, 1941 regarding balance of rent due to the Beaux Arts Apartment by yourself and Special Agent W. T. Cillespie. I note from your letter that you feel certain that the bill for $20.00 must represent Mr. Cillespie's half of the rent, and that you were writing that day to Agent Cillespie requesting that he take care of it.

Por your information, neither the National Defense Unit nor myself have received any information or advice from Special Agent Cillespie that this matter has been taken care of, and I wanted to advise you in the premises so that you and he can get together in order that this matter can be successfully terminated in the immediate future.

I received your letter of September 13th, regarding the bill in the sum of $20.53 directed to yourself and Agent O. E. Manna, by the Beaux Arts Apartments.

For your information, Agent Hanna advised under date of September 12th that he had that day sent his personal check to the Beaux Arts in the sum of $20.53 in full settlement of the bill.

I am therefore returning the two cancelled checks for $25.58 and $43.61 respectively, together with your check of September 12th, in the sum of $20.53, to the Beaux Arts Apartments.

It appears from Mr. Manna's letter that this bill has been settled in full.

SPECIAL EFFICIENCY RATING.

EÖD 3-10-41

Dear Sir:

There is submitted herewith a special efficiency rating relative to the above named Special Agent assigned to this office.

This Agent has been assigned to the Buffalo Field Division since August 17, 1941, and was first assigned to the case entitled "Unknown Subjects: Lehigh Valley Railroad, August 28, 1941; Sabotage" (Bureau file number 98-5173), which involved a complicated sabotage investigation at Watkins Glen and vicinity in New York. I have been impressed with the thoroughness with which this Agent pursued this investigation, and the reports reflecting his investigative efforts have been prepared in a clear and logical manner.

During the middle of October, 1941, this Agent was will a married, and since his return to official duties on October 28th, 1941, he has been assigned exclusively to plant survey work.

This Agent appears to be entirely loss recorded.
enthusiastic toward the discharge of his assignments, has willingly performed considerable overtime, has a good standard type of personality with which he makes friends readily, and is able to handle himself well with police officers and plant officials. I believe that he will develop readily into a good average Agent.

Dear Sir:

This is to advise that the above named Special Agent is currently being placed exclusively on the assignment of handling Communist activities in this district.

Since my arrival in this office on October 13, 1941, there have been two other Agents assigned to the investigation of Communist activities — HENRY WOODS, who handled this matter until his transfer, and Special Agent DAVID A. SILVER, who has been handling it since the transfer of Special Agent WOODS, and now Special Agent MOORE is being assigned to this project upon the occasion of Special Agent SILVER's transfer.

It might be noted that with the frequency of transfers of men assigned especially to this project, it is difficult to make satisfactory progress, and the assignment of Special Agent MOORE to this project is being called to the attention of the Bureau in the event he is being given consideration for transfer in the immediate future.

Re: DONALD E. MOORE, Special Agent; EFFICIENCY RATING

Dear Sir:

There is rendered herewith a Special Efficiency Rating on this agent who entered on duty at the training school for new agents at Washington, D. C. on March 10, 1941. He was first assigned to the New York City Field Office and was subsequently transferred to Buffalo where he reported on August 18, 1941. He is in Grade CAF 9 at $3200.00 per annum, the entrance salary. There was rendered a 45-day report by Special Agent in Charge D. L. McCORMACK on October 1, 1941 and a Special Efficiency Rating by myself on this agent on November 10, 1941. This report supplements the two above and covers the period since that time.

Agent MOORE's work since the last Efficiency Rating has been in the vicinity of headquarters where he has been assigned exclusively to Communistic activities. Since his assignment in this office his work has covered cases involving Extortion; Larceny from Interstate Shipments; Selective Service; National Motor Vehicle Theft Act; White Slave Traffic Act; Impersonation; Theft, Embezzlement or Illegal Possession of Government property; Espionage; Bureau Applicants; Indian and Government Reservation Matters; Departmental Applicants; National Stolen Property Act; Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution; Bank Robbery; Alien Employment; Registration Act; Sabotage; Plant Survey; Internal Security and Voorhis Act.

The investigations of this agent have been good recorded.

have noted that his reports have reflected thoroughness, and attention to details. In dictation it has been noted that his work has been well prepared and he dictates in a clear, smooth style and has the 49-ability to express himself in good reporting language.

In one Quarterly Conference which he attended, he received a grade of 81% on his examination and "Satisfactory" in his notebook and in another Quarterly Conference which he attended he received a grade of 85% on his manual and "Satisfactory" in his notebook. This agent has voluntarily attended the New Agents' Training Courses in this office in order to better familiarize himself with the manuals. He has participated actively in these conferences, has asked intelligent questions and has been attentive. He has not testified as yet in the Moot Court session nor has he given testimony before a Commissioner's hearing or in open court.

This agent has participated in the apprehension of two fugitives. I believe that he is tempermentally fitted for assignments of a dangerous nature. He has been engaged in one surveillance matter extending through a 2h-hour period. I have observed him operate an automobile and have ascertained that he appears to be a capable driver. He possesses an operator's license for the State of New York. He has not submitted any accounting lessons in the Bureau's accounting course. His overtime for the month of November 1941 was five hours per day which is about average for the office.

This agent makes a good personal appearance and has a likeable type personality. He is able to make a favorable impression upon persons in all walks of life and I have received favorable comment from police officers with whom he has worked. He is intelligent, industrious and definitely interested in his work. Since his assignment to Communistic activities in this district, he has been familiarizing himself with the local set-up of that Party and their organizational arrangements and has been able to make effective use of confidential national defense informants some of whom have been developed by him. I believe that he will develop satisfactorily in this project and develop productive results. He is anxious to develop as quickly as possible, is enthusiastic, and is showing better-than-average development at the present time.

It might be noted that during the month of October 1941 this agent was married.

I consider him to be an agent in whom responsibility can be placed. He requires less than the average supervision.

At the conclusion of his training period Mr. Morley said he had a good personality, average intelligence, a considerable amount of poise, and with experience would demonstrate supervisory ability.

On May 10, 1941, he was assigned to the New York Office. On July 10, 1941, SAC Sackett said he presented a rather youthful but good appearance, dressed neatly, created a favorable first impression, was mature in manner, had applied himself with very commendable enthusiasm and interest; that he had handled the matters assigned to him very well and had produced a very good volume of work in an entirely satisfactory manner; that he operated generally with good judgment, with average supervision, and was developing in an efficiency satisfactory manner and should become a very desirable, effective Agent.

While in the New York Office, this Agent resided at the Beaux Arts Apartments, and in his statement to Inspector Egan on August 8, 1941, he advised he had been in the cocktail lounge about 12 times at the most in three months, and that he was not acquainted with any of the girls who resided in the apartments. If Egan in his statement advised this Agent had no association whatever with any women.

The Director has issued instructions that this Agent is not to receive any administrative promotion or reallocation for a period of two years from Aug. 16, 1941.

On Sept. 6, 1941, SAC Sackett again commented on him favorably and said he had made entirely satisfactory, and should develop into a good desirable Agent.

On August 18, 1941, he was assigned to the Buffalo office. On Oct. 1, 1941, SAC McCormack said he had a likeable, quiet personality, was cooperative, handled his assignments satisfactorily and somewhat above average for a new Agent, used good judgment, and was developing probably more rapidly than the average new Agent and would become a better than average Agent.

As a result of the inspection of the Buffalo office, Inspector Egan said on Oct. 6, 1941, that he made a good appearance, was willing, and about average for a new man.

On Nov. 10, 1941, SAC Piper said he was entirely loyal, enthusiastic, performed considerable overtime, had a good type personality, made friends readily, handled himself well with police officers and plant officials; and that he would develop readily into a good average Agent.

On Dec. 31, 1941, SAC Piper said he had received favorable comments from police officers with whom this Agent had worked; that he was intelligent, industrious, definitely interested, had been able to make effective use of confidential informants; that he was anxious to develop as quickly as possible, required less than average supervision, had been assigned exclusively to handling Communist activities and it was believed he would produce good results; that he could assume responsibility; and that he was showing better than average development at that time and he had a future with the service.

RECOMMENDATION: It is recommended this Agent be reallocated to grade CAF-10 at $3500 per annum.

Respectfully,

J. P. Mohr

Re: Special Agent D. E. MOORE, Testimony - Moot Court Session, Buffalo Field Division

Dear Sir:

This is to advise that the above-captioned Special Agent testified in the Moot Court Session at the New Agents! Conference held at the Buffalo Field Division on January 23, 1942.

Special Agent MOORE spoke in a clear, audible tone of voice which was distinctly heard throughout the room. He availed himself of privileged information and during the heated interrogation of opposing counsel, gave himself ample opportunity for objections by the prosecuting attorney prior to the answering of questions. He maintained poise and composure on the stand and handled himself in a credible 10 1942 manner.

T believe that he is competent to represent the Bureau as a witness in court.

DICTATION ABILITY OF AGENTS

Inspector HARBO:

I had occasion to observe dictation by Agent PRHDERICK on April 28th, 1942. His dictation was slow and he did not appear to have his facts properly marshalled. I understand from your statement that he arrived in this office from training school only a couple of weeks ago and that this was his first dictation. In view of the rather substantial number of comparatively new Agents in your office, it is of course highly important that close supervision be given to a program for improving the dictation ability of these Agents.

For record purposes there is set out below the composite ranking of the dictation ability of the Agents in this office based on the ratings by stenographers:

Re: DONALD E. MOORE, SPECIAL AGENT. E.O.D. March 10, 1941. CAF 10, $3500.00 per annum.

This Special Agent has been assigned exclusively to the handling of Communistic and subversive activities investigations in this area. He has been assigned a few general investigative and national defense matters in connection with this work.

The investigations of this Agent have been good. He has given attention to details and has been thorough. In dictation ability he is rated as seventh in this field office. I note that his work is well organized, that he dictates evenly and smoothly, and gives consideration in the dictation of names and figures.

In quarterly conferences he has presented subjects for discussion in a capable manner and upon the occasion of the most recent quarterly conference conducted the conference under my supervision in a capable style. He has voluntarily attended new agents training conferences although he has completed the required attendance. He has assisted new Agents in familiarizing themselves with Bureau procedure. I have witnessed his testimony in most court sessions and believe that he is a competent witness.

This Agent has participated in the apprehension of Bureau fugitives and has assisted in the conduct of multiple searches of alien enemies in this district. I believe that he is temperamentally suited for dangerous assignments. His overtime for the past three month period has averaged 4 hours and 55 minutes per day, which is above average, and I note that the average of all his firearms scores during the period of assignment in the Buffalo Field Division is 80%, which is a little below average for the office.

This Agent has a good personal appearance and the type of personality which enables him-to-successfully meet law enforcement officers as well as business and professional people. I have received favorable comment from various police officers concerning his contacts with them. In his assignment to Communistic activity matters I believe that he is productive since he has developed a number of confidential national defense informants who have furnished considerable information. This project has been well developed by him, and he has been responsible for the preparation of the nationalistic tendency charts on Communism. He is enthusiastic toward his assignments, is loyal to the Bureau, and in my opinion is developing satisfactorily. I would rate him as Good.

Very truly yours

K. M. PIPER.

Re: DONALD E. MOORE, SPECIAL AGENT BUFFALO FIELD DÍVISION. E.O.D. - March 10, 1941. PRESENT GRADE AND SALARY - CAF 10, $3500 per annum.

SPECIAL EFFICIENCY RATING

There is rendered herewith a special efficiency rating on the above named Special Agent who reported to the Buffalo Field Division, his second office of assignment, on August 17th, 1941. This efficiency rating

This Agent has been assigned to Communistic activities in the Buffalo Field Division, and he has developed an excellent background concerning the leaders and organizational functions of the Communist Party and its affiliated front groups. His investigations have been very thorough and he has developed a number of confidential national defense informants in this field who have afforded him excellent informant coverage. In dictation his facts have been well marshaled, and I have been advised that he has dictated at an even rate of speed. His reports have been submitted in good form.

This Agent has been in attendance at new Agents' conferences despite the fact that he has completed the required course of instruction. In connection with an Agents' Quarterly Conference conducted in August, 1942, this Agent attained to a grade of 95% in the written examination, Good on his notebook, and Excellent in photographic work, and in the course of an Agents' Quarterly Conference in November, 1942, this Agent attained to a grade of 931% on the written examination, Fair in photography, and Good on his notebook. In firearms he has averaged 85% in the use of all Bureau weapons during the rating period. In overtime he has averaged 4 hours and 40 minutes per day. He has participated in arrests and alien enemy searches, and I believe that he is temperamentally suited for assignments of a dangerous character. He is a capable driver, and he is in possession of a New York

This Agent has very carefully prepared quarterly reports as well as monthly intelligence summaries in the field of the Communist Party in this district. I have been particularly impressed with his grasp of the activities of the Communist Party together with his knowledge of the infiltration of this group into unions and other organizations in the Western District of New York. This Agent has taken fold of this project job.

SPECIAL EFFICIENCY RATING, Page 2. Re: DONALD E. MOORE, SPECIAL AGENT, BUFFALO FIELD DIVISION, F.B.I.

This Agent makes a very good personal appearance. He has a good personality which enables him to successfully contact persons in business and law enforcement as well as to win the confidence of confidential national defense informants whom he has developed. He has the knack of making his work productive and has been able to operate with a minimum of supervision. He is intelligent, aggressive, and on one or two occasions has been utilized on the Number One desk during the absence of the Number One supervisor. I believe that this Agent has some administrative ability. I consider him a very good Agent, and he has shown satisfactory development.

ery truly yours,

Special Agent in Charge.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has been designated as the sole civilian government investigative agency having jurisdiction over the investigation of matters pertaining to national defense such as espionage, sabotage, registration of agents of foreign principals, sedition, treason, and the like, and further, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has sole investigative jurisdiction in a great number of other Federal statutes which embrace bank robbery, kidnaping, extortion, white slave traffic, National Motor Vehicle Theft Act, and numerous others. This Bureau has also been designated by Congress as the agency officially responsible for the tabulation and dissemination of police statistics for the entire country. Under an act of Congress these statistics are gathered and are distributed to thousands of interested police and affiliated agencies every six months so that trends in crime, crime records, and crime control can be known to those to whom it is of most interest. Further than this, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has been designated as the agency having jurisdiction over the classification and maintenance of fingerprint records not only on a national basis but on an international basis. The greatest depository of fingerprint records in the world is maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, D. C. We have over sixty-one million sets of fingerprints on hand today and are receiving fingerprint records at a rate of approximately 115,000 each day. The military and naval authorities have issued orders that all employees of manufacturing plants operating under contracts with the War Department or Navy Department must be fingerprinted and their fingerprints sent to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for search against our existing files. Obviously the rurpose of such an order is to ascertain the criminal background, if any, of persons who are occupying positions where they have access to confidential information and to eliminate from such positions those persons whose records indicate that their interests are not those of our government.

We are also receiving fingerprint records of all persons enlisting or being inducted into the army and other military and naval services. All employees of the Federal government are fingerprinted and their fingerprints searched through our files for prior criminal records, again for the purpose of guarding against the employment of persons in the Federal government whose backgrounds indicate that they might not function to the best interests of our government. We are receiving thousands of criminal fingerprints from all police agencies throughout the country and it is essential that these fingerprints be handled promptly and the contributing agency advised of any prior record so that justice may be intelligently administered. By means of this procedure the Federal Pureau of Investigation is able to identify thousands of fugitives from justice each year who otherwise might not be identified by local police agencies who do not have the benefit of prior criminal records as reflected on fingerprint cards which were made at the time of some previous arrest. Many such persons are wanted for a previous criminal act by some other law enforcement agency and are presently attempting to disguise their true identity through assuming a fictitious name. This ruse on their part is penétrated through the science of fingerprinting and the Federal Bureau of Investigation is enabled to advise the interested local law enforcement agency of the true identity of the individual and he can be held for appropriate prosecutive action, whereas if not identified, he quite possibly would have been released to continue his depredations against society.

Our criminological laboratory handles the scientific examination of evidence in cases investigated by the Federal and local law enforcement agencies. A very high percentage of the work presently being performed by the Technical Laboratory is in connection with the national war effort. Evidence collected in suspected sabotage cases is examined by the scientists in our laboratory who are qualified to handle examinations of almost any technical nature. The personnel in the Technical Laboratory have been trained through education and experience to handle such subjects as analytical chemistry, qualitative and quantitative analysis, ballistics tests, microanalysis examinations, spectrographic examinations, cryptograph and cryptanalysis work, and many other highly technical examinations.

The Files Section of the Federal Bureau of Investigation contains files on hundreds of thousands of individuals whose activities are of the greatest importance to the country today. It is highly important that we maintain in the Files Section a nucleus of experienced personnel so that the information contained therein can be made readily available to the supervisory personnel of this Bureau and also be made available to other governmental agencies such as the State Department, Military Intelligence Tivision, Office of Naval Intelligence, and the Immigration and Naturalization service. It is most essential that only the most trusted employees be assigned to this work because of the highly confidential material that is contained in our files.

All of the functions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are so closely inter-related that it is essential that qualified and experienced personnel be available not only to perform their own work but to train new employees. The Congress of the United States has passed several bills within the past year approving an increase in the personnel. When it is considered that the work of this Bureau is highly confidential it can be appreciated that the selection of personnel must be made with great care. It has been our experience that only one employee is obtained from every one hundred persons who have applied. It is necessary that each employee be investigated thoroughly so that there will be no possibility of having a person in our service who is not loyal to the United States. We have found that it is extremely difficult to secure qualified persons for almost any of the positions that are available. At the present time we have approximately 1,500 employees less than the number that has been authorized by Congress. Every effort is being made to obtain these additional employees as they are badly needed in order for us to properly carry on the work that has been assigned to us. We are endeavoring to obtain these additional persons without interfering in any way with the administration of the Selective Training and Service Act. In all positions where possible we are utilizing the services of female employees. With the exception of Special Agents' and Laboratory Scientists' positions, no appointment of male employees who may be eligible for military service are being made. It is absolutely necessary, however, that our experienced personnel be maintained so that the new personnel can be adequately supervised and trained.

All employees of the Federal Bureau of Investigation have been working at top speed to keep abreast of our duties. The regular work week has been extended to 48 hours, and it has been our experience in the past that an additional amount of overtime will be voluntarily performed by the employees of this Bureau in an effort to properly and expeditiously handle the tremendous volume of important work being referred to us in connection with the war effort. Obviously very little consideration can be given to replacing an experienced employee until such time as we are able to build up our present staff to the number authorized and needed.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are given twelve weeks of training which embraces 535 hours of study. During that period of time they are trained not only in investigative techniques and procedures, but are qualified in the handling of firearms, mechanical devices, and technical devices in use by the Bureau. After entering the Field service which follows their training period, their skill, of course, increases with their length of service in the Field. It would obviously, therefore, be impossible to adequately replace an experienced Special Agent until the replacement had been in the service an equal length of time.

The science of the classification of fingerprints is one of the most exacting in the world today. Employees in law enforcement organizations handling fingerprint activities are of a profession which demands the utmost skill and honesty in the practice of that profession. In the Federal Bureau of Investigation we train Fingerprint Technicians through classroom and practical study for a period of approximately six months. At the end of that time those employees are qualified to examine sets of fingerprints and to identify like sets. This science cannot be taught overnight and the loss of a fingerprint man at any stage of his training or employment is a severe blow to the Federal Bureau of Investigation at this time when we are receiving thousands of sets of prints from all of the coordinated activities of the Government and from local law enforcement agencies.

The Laboratory Scientists of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, all graduate scientists, are thoroughly schooled in the science of criminology and today are performing duties pertaining to the successful war effort one hundred percent of their time. Their training in this field, embracing all sciences of laboratory examination which includes cryptography, chemistry, ballistics, geology, serology, and many others, has been invaluable in the solving of espionage, sabotage, and other subversive activities. It is essential that these scientists many times perform their scientific work in the field under such conditions that they could not be replaced with employees not possessing their physical attributes.

Bureau employees in positions aforementioned and for whom deferments are requested possess technical and scientific skills which renders them irreplaceable to the Federal Bureau of Investigation at this time.

I, J. Edgar Hoover, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that the foregoing statements are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Director, FBI

RE: SUPERVISORS;

BUFFALO FIELD DIVISION.

Dear Sir:

At this time I desire to recommend and request an additional Field Office Supervisor for the Buffalo Field Division.

The office now has over 3,000 pending cases. As the work is presently set up, I am supervising all general investigative work, Sabotage, Codition, Nationalistic Organizations and Applicants, as well as any other matters not assigned to the Assistant Special Agent in Charge or the Field Office Supervisor. I also, of course, am handling all speech engagements, important cases, office administration and personnel matters. This supervision includes the supervision of approximately 500 cases.

The Assistant Special Agent in Charge is supervising Classification Numbers 29, 49, 61, 65, 96, 97 and 100. He has the supervision of approximately 2,125 cases. In addition, he helps with the administrative problems of the office when I am out of town, and interviews most of the applicants.

The Field Office Supervisor, Er. ROBERT T. MICKMAN, supervises Police cases and Selective Service cases. This was a total of a little over 1,000 cases in the last monthly administrative report. In addition, he has the responsibility of training new Agents.

The volume on these three dosks is such that it is impossible to give attention to the type of supervision which I desire, and which I know the Eureau desires. In the Euffalo Office approximately one-third of the Agents are in their first office, and with the exception of about ten men, all of the Agent personnel - which ranges from 55 to 60 - are in either their first or second office and for the most part have had less than a year's experience in the Field. These men, in order to become good Agents, need close supervision, particularly of the type of work they are doing and the kind of reports they are writing. Decause of the volume of work I do not believe they are getting this type of supervision at the present time, but feel that an additional Supervisor added to the present office administrative staff will allow for much better supervision along these lines.

Re: Supervisors;

The men are rushed with many administrative duties to such an extent that they are not able to spend as much time as they would like, and it is desirable to read material and analyze and study it. The Police cases do not receive the attention they should. Latters assigned to the Police are not as many as should be, and this is due primarily to the fact that Lr. HICKNAH, who supervises this material, has not the time to devote to these matters which he should have. It is impossible for him to properly carry on the Selective Service work and at the same time write Police reports and assign Police cases.

It is not because the Field Office Supervisory Staff is not working hard and long in order to accomplish these ends, but it is a physical impossibility for them to do it properly. I find that over the past six months the Special Agent in Charge has averaged 5 hrs. and 23 mins, por day overtime; that the Assistant Epecial Agent in Charge has averaged 4 hrs. and 31 mins. per day overtime, and that the Field Office Supervisor, Mr. HICKIAN, has averaged 5 hrs. and 7 mins. per day overtime. Last month, which was my first month in the Buffalo Field Office. Mr. MICKMAN accumulated 120 hrs. and 15 mins. overtime; Mr. SCHLEERER, the Assistant Special Agent in Charge, accumulated 107 hrs. and 10 mins. overtime, and I accumulated 146 hrs. overtime. It is my observation that the Field Office administrative personnel is in the office every night until from 10:30 to 12:00 and 1:00 o'clock, and it in impossible for any of them to take an evening off without their work so accumulating that they must work until 1:00 or 2:00 o'clock the following night in order to catch up. I consider this a deplorable situation and one which can only be bad for the morale of the men I know the men are willing to work long assigned to these positions. and hard, but I do not believe that they can continue at their present pace indefinitely without injury to their health, and feel they must have additional help in order to alleviate this situation.

I have mide a survey and feel that the work should be divided up into four desks, as follows:

The opening of all new cases;
Checking of all closed files, with the exception of classification 25 cases in both the new and closed status;

Execial Agent HIRSH has had long Duronu service. Its is thoroughly grounded in the Duronu's policies, methods and procedures. He uses good judgment in matters which are assigned to him, and I believe him to have administrative and supervisory ability. Its has been particularly active in the Duronu's E.P.P. Program, doing a good job and understanding the applicant situation well. Its has also been in this territory a long while and is well acquainted with the Police Officers and officials herein, having handled Police cases at one time in the past.

Special Agent MOORE has been handling Communist activities in this area and doing a magnificent job thereon. He is the first agent in the office to apply the newest rules and regulations as set out in Dureau Bulletins. He administers his work in grand fashion and has definite administrative and supervisory possibilities.

If any proference is shown between the two men, it should probably be weighed on the side of seniority of service incofar as I am concerned.

Very truly yours,

DUARE L. TRAYFOR, Epocial Agent in Chargo KMP:np

RE: SUPERVISORS
BUFFALO FIELD DIVISION

With reference to the request of SAC Traynor of the Buffalo Field Division for an additional Supervisor, this is to advise that the Executive Conference approved an additional Supervisor.

It is noted in Bureau letter of February 25, 1943 that SAC Traynor recommended for this additional supervisory position of Selective Service, the names of Special Agent B. M. Hirsh, first; and Special Agent D. E. Moore, second. A review of the files has been made by me on both of these Special Agents, and it is my recommendation that Special Agent Donald E. Moore be approved for the additional supervisory position. Accordingly, there is attached a summary of the file of Special Agent D. E. Moore as well as a communication to the Buffalo Field Division approving the designation of Moore for this position.

REMARKS

At the conclusion of his training period, Mr. Morley said he had a good personality, average intelligence, a considerable amount of poise, and with experience would demonstrate supervisory ability.

On 5-10-41 he was assigned to New York. While in that office, SAC Sackett commented favorably on this agent and stated that his progress had been entirely satisfactory and that he should develop into a good desirable agent. This agent was assigned to the New York Office during the Beaux Arts Apartment episode, however, concerning this, Inspector Egan stated that he was not involved in any way but the Director issued instructions that this agent was not to receive any administrative promotion or reallocation for a period of two-years from 8-16-41.

On 8-18-41 he was transferred to the Buffalo Office. On 1-16-42 he was reallocated to Grade CAF-10 at $3500 per annum. During an inspection of the Buffalo Office in April and May, 1942 FORVICTORY

ROUND TO BUY

That he presented a good appearance, was intelligent, interested in his work, that he appeared to have made satisfactory progress, and that he would continue to develop.

On 4-30-42 SAC Piper rated him as GOOD and stated that his firearms scores were a little below average for the office, however, that he had a good personal appearance, that he was able to successfully meet people, that his investigations were good, that he had been rated 7th in that office in dictation ability, that he made a competent witness in most court, and it was believed that he was developing satisfactorily.

During an inspection of the Buffalo Office in October, 1942, Inspector Sears said he appeared alert, intelligent, above average, that his feet were on the ground, and that his status was very good.

On 1-5-43 SAC Piper rated him as VERY GOOD stating that his investigations were very thorough, that he had developed a number of confidential national defense informants who had afforded him excellent informant coverage, that his reports were submitted in good form, that he had very carefully prepared quarterly reports as well as monthly intelligence summaries in the field of the Communist Party, and Mr. Piper said he was particularly impressed with his grasp of the activities of the Communist Party together with his knowledge of the infiltration of that group into unions and other organizations; that he had the knack of making his work productive; that he had been able to operate with a minimum of supervision, that he was intelligent and aggressive; that he had some administrative ability, and that he had developed satisfactorily.

Mr. Cunningham interviewed this agent during In-Service Training in January, 1943 and stated that he presented a good personal appearance although somewhat immature, that he appeared to be intelligent and alert, was enthusiastic about his work, and that he was an interesting conversationalist. This agent, said he had no objection to being assigned to SIS work if the Bureau saw fit to so assign him, however, he did not feel that he should ask for such an assignment but merely wanted to make it a matter of record that he was available for such work.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

E: Anonymous Telegram Received March 20 Concerning XBuffalo Office.

Miss Gandy_ //In accordance with instructions from Mr. Hendon I pro-Reded to Buffalo, arriving on the morning of March 23, to make an inquiry concerning the anonymous telegram received at the Bureau alleging dishonesty, disloyalty, and unfairness on the part of the SAC. The telegram was sent via Postal Telegraph from coin box telephone CLeveland 9184, which is located in the rear portion of the Liggett Drug Store at the corner of Main and Chippewa Streets, Buffalo. The person transmitting the telegram stated he was telephoning from a Harvey and Carey Drug Store, and it is noted that such a drug store is directly across the street from the Liggett Store. The message was paid for in coins in the coin box and the charge was $1.70. The message was taken over the phone by Miss Marguerite Haller, who stated that she remembered the message, that it was given to her over the phone by a man with a normal, full voice with no distinguishing accent. An inquiry at the Liggett Drug Store concerning a man requesting change in making a phone call was unproductive. The person transmitting the telegram told the telephone operator he was R. F. Sullivan, living at the Ford Hotel. Inquiry disclosed no such person had been registered at the Ford Hotel during March, 1943. A check of the Field Office indices and local telephone and city directories was unproductive. The possibility that former Agent Ed O'Donnell might have

A preliminary general inquiry among several Agents furnished no definite information, and in accordance with Bureau instructions, beginning Thursday afternoon, March 25, I specifically inquired of each Agent and each clerical employee individually whether they had sent the anonymous message or had any knowledge thereof. They were also asked whether they knew of any incident or discussion which might have led to the sending of the communication, and some information of value was obtained, as set out hereinafter.

sent the message was eliminated since his sister advised SAC Traynor he had been staying at the Lexington Hotel for two weeks prior to March 30.

Reasons for Suspecting Agent John D. Young.

Although he furnished a signed statement denying it, I Hosbided the. BUY message was sent by Special Agent John D. Younga who has been diedeick. moody. I believe he harbors a deep resentment against SAC Dwayne Traynor, as indicated hereinafter.

The following are my reasons for believing that Agent Young sent the anonymous communication to the Bureau requesting the removal of SAC Traynor for unfairness, disloyalty, and dishonesty.

- l. Young stated to me that Traynor appeared to be placing his own welfare above that of the Bureau. In support of this he stated that at the initial Agents' conference held by Traynor he appeared to be antagonistic toward the Agents; that in effect Traynor stated he was going to grade the Agents on how they kept him out of trouble, and that, after all, he had the last say since he wrote the efficiency reports. Agent Charles E. Musgrave informed me that after the first Agents' conference Young had stated to him that it looked as though Traynor was putting his own interests above those of the Bureau.
- 2. With reference to the office rule that Agents may be in the office five hours per week during office hours without any authorization of the SAC, but must obtain his specific authorization for any time in excess of that, Young stated that he pointed out to Traynor that he believed it desirable for him to be in the office considerably in excess of that period each week largely to interview subjects in cases which he was investigating, mainly German cases. Young stated that Traynor first said that he could interview them at the home, place of employment, or in the automobile driven by the Agent, whereupon Young pointed out the psychological advantage of conducting the interviews in the office. Young stated that Traynor responded in effect, "What I don't know won't hurt me, and as long as you sign out on the number three register I don't care where you interview them. Young stated that he definitely got the impression that Traynor suggested to him that he show on the number three register that he was out of the office although he was in fact in the office during the time indicated. Young also stated that he believed that Agent Fred Finley had been the recipient of a similar suggestion but that Finley as well as Young had clearly indicated they could follow no such practice. I was informed by Agent Charles E. Musgrave that Young had mentioned these alleged incidents to him. Upon inquiry by me, Finley denied that he had ever received any instructions from SAC Traynor or anyone else. He is not positive but he thinks there may have been some few Agents who either were or were considering staying in the office and showing themselves as signed out. It is his opinion that if such a practice existed it was the result of too much emphasis placed on the five-hour per week rule. Finley recalls that some Agents/ have raised the question when he was present and that he told them it should / not be done and not to do it. He was unable to recall the names of any of the Agents who were present when such a question was raised, but stated that Young may have been one of them.

- 3. Young stated that on one occasion in the latter part of January or first part of February Traynor talked to him about the need for opening more German cases, to which Young replied that he would open cases whenever appropriate. He alleged that Traynor then stated he was going to beat Piper's record and that neither Young nor anyone else was going to stop him. Young stated that SAC Traynor remarked, probably jokingly, that if Young couldn't open more cases he would find someone who could. Young stated to me that he felt that with reference to this matter he possibly had already opened more cases than should have been opened prior to the time when Traynor spoke to him. On Monday morning, March 22, the day on which the anonymous telegram was sent, Young came to the office and wanted to go back to work, but Traynor told him he could not until his doctor said it was O.K. Young told Agent Bennett Hirsh Monday morning that he felt fine and that his doctor had told him he could come back to work. Traynor states that Young advised him that he thought his doctor would approve his return and that Traynor told him to stay off another week. Young later indicated to Agent Musgrave that he resented this action by Traynor; that he was not going to take the week on sick leave, but was going to take the week on annual leave. Young also made a statement to me that he didn't want to use up all his sick leave.
- 4. Young was in charge of the investigation of German activities in Buffalo until early in February, at which time these cases were taken from him and he was given more routine general criminal cases. The reason for this shift in assignments, as explained in Traynor's letter to the Bureau dated February 12, 1943, was to lighten Young's burden because he was not in good physical condition. Young has indicated to Agent Musgrave that he resented this change.
- 5. Young received a letter from the Bureau dated February 9, 1943, transferring him to the Bureau. Traynor wrote the Bureau February 12, suggesting that in view of Young's health the transfer be canceled. Young attended in-service school from February 15-28 and while there received a Bureau letter dated February 20 advising him his transfer was canceled. When speaking to me, Young mentioned the cancellation of his transfer and stated that he discussed this matter with the SAC before he communicated with the Bureau on February 12. and told the SAC most emphatically that it was his personal desire that the transfer not be canceled, but that if he wanted to recommend the cancellation of the transfer that was, of course, his prerogative as Agent in Charge. Young also indicated to me that he thought he was to be assigned to work under Mr. Kenneth Piper at the Bureau, and that he thought Traynor had the transfer canceled just to show Young that Piper can't run the Buffalo Office any longer. Shortly after his return to Buffalo on about March 2, Young indicated to Musgrave that he resented very strongly that the transfer was canceled, and also made a statement the exact nature of which Musgrave does not recall but which gave Musgrave the impression that Young was either on the verge of resigning or was ready to face dismissal. The impression gained by Musgrave was that Young felt that SAC Traynor was after him and would eventually get him.

- 6. During one of my conversations with Young he referred to an alleged fear complex on the part of Bureau Agents generally. When I asked him the had not advised the Bureau of the items which he had mentioned to me he stated he had seriously considered doing so while he was at in-service school in February but decided not to because since he has been in the Bureau other Agents have indicated to him it was best not to take the initiative in reporting such items as it would only get him in trouble.
- 7. Young stated to me that while he has been on sick leave he has been doing considerable reading of books in the field of personnel matters. This would naturally cause him to brood over the unfair and unjust treatment which he alleges he has received.
- 8. The wording of the anonymous telegram sounds generally like Young's language; it could easily be his.
- 9. I first talked to Young shortly before noon on Wednesday, March 24, at which time in response to only a very general inquiry he revealed all of the complaints which he had to make which definitely indicated that if his allegations were true he would have grounds for believing that the SAC was disloyal, dishonest, and unfair. When I again had a general talk with Young on Thursday, March 25, he told me that he had been to dinner the preceding evening with Dave Sowers, a retired businessman in Buffalo who is a good friend of the Bureau, and that he had mentioned to Sowers that there was an inspector in the Office and that he was worried for fear he had talked too much. This incident strikes me as very unusual and as reflecting that the matters he mentioned to me have caused him a great deal of concern; that he has worried and brooded over them; and that he probably is not well mentally.
- 10. When I talked to Young on Wednesday, March 24, no reference had been made to anyone in the office concerning the anonymous communication. I asked him casually what he did Monday afternoon, March 22, inasmuch as he had told me he had been in the office most of the morning that day. He seemed momentarily startled and upset at the question, but quickly regained his composure and stated that he had a late lunch at the Buffalo Athletic Club where he resides, dining with the assistant manager, whom he referred to as "Rocky." He stated that about 2:00 or 2:30 he went to his room and had slept for a while when his girlfriend, Miss Joan Zimmerman, awakened him by telephoning him from the lobby of the Athletic Club; that shortly thereafter he joined her and after spending some time in the public rooms of the Athletic Club he took her to an early dinner, about 5:00 P.M., after which he took her to her father's office where she works, then went to a movie, and thereafter came to the Field Office, where he obtained one of his manuals in order that he might study it in his room at the Athletic Club.

- that he had heard a rumor that SAC Traynor had used Agent John J. McKenna to drive his wife on a shopping trip in a Bureau car on Bureau time. This allegation was disproved and will be reported in detail later in this Memorandum, but it should be noted that Young is the only Agent who voluntarily made any reference to it, and this gossip was apparently limited to two other Agents. Charles Musgrave and Donald Gray. Musgrave told me that when he and Young talked about this incident Young stated that when former SAC Piper was still there Traynor had asked for keys to a Bureau car and that Piper had refused to give Traynor the keys. Musgrave understood him to mean that Traynor had asked for the keys to a Bureau car for a similar purpose to that alleged in the McKenna incident. Young did not indicate to Musgrave how he knew of this alleged incident. Musgrave furnished me this information after Young had left the city to stay with his sister in Avon, and I was unable to question him concerning this alleged statement.
- 12. When I talked to Young on Friday, March 26, I for the first time specifically asked him whether he sent the anonymous communication. He denied this and furnished a signed statement to that effect. However, he talked a great deal about his loyalty to the Bureau and stated that even if he should be fired he would still be loyal. It may be significant that if he did not send the anonymous telegram the only reason he could possibly have for entertaining a thought that he might be discharged from the Bureau would be for his failure to bring to the attention of the Bureau the items which he had mentioned to me.
- 13. Young is not well physically or mentally. He impressed me as morose and worried. On Saturday, March 27, Assistant SAC A. C. Schlenker talked to Young's physician, Dr. Robert E. Deceu, who stated that he had seen Young on Friday, March 26, and found that he was very nervous, had a temperature of 100, was considerably upset about something at the office, and was suffering from a recurrence of a functional digestive disturbance. The doctor also stated that about ten years ago Young was at a sanitarium for a time because he had tubercular pleurisy but that after while he had come back home from the sanitarium because he had become nervous almost to the extent of being hysterical because he could not stand the routine at the sanitarium.

I first talked to Young on Wednesday, March 24, and he voluntarily poured out his troubles and complaints in response to only a general inquiry on my part. He is somewhat inclined to be garrulous. I again talked to him on Thursday, the morning of March 25. Early in the afternoon I received Bureau instructions to ask each Agent specifically whether he sent the anonymous message. It was not possible to get in touch with Young from 2:00 P.M. until 11:50 P.M., although he had left a telephone number at which he could be reached. His explanation was that he had been in and out of the house of his girlfriend.

Miss Joan Zimmerman, and that apparently all calls from the office were at times when he was out of the house. There is no excuse for his failure to be available, first because he was on sick leave, and secondly because I had specifically asked him to be available since he had indicated the desire to leave the city to visit his sister at Avon, New York. As previously indicated, I talked to Young Friday morning, at which time he told me he had a temperature of 100 and that his doctor had informed him he should either spend a week in the hospital or at his sister's residence at Avon, his sister being a registered nurse. Before he left for Avon on Saturday, March 27, I talked to him briefly and he repeated his denial. In all interviews subsequent to the first one on March 24 Young was worried and morose in manner but it was difficult to determine to what extent this was attributable to his illness. It is my opinion that during the several weeks he has been on sick leave he has brooded over comparatively minor incidents with the result that he worked himself into such a state of mind that he sent the anonymous communication, an act he probably would not have committed had he been in normal health.

On March 31 SAC Traynor talked to Dr. George R. Collins, who is attending Young at Avon, New York, and was advised that Young still had a temperature of 992 degrees. It appears that it may be some time yet before Young will be in a condition to resume work.

Recommendation re Agent Young.

It is recommended that when his physician certifies that Young is in condition to go back to work that he be brought to Washington for further examination at the Naval Hospital. At this time it is recommended that he be thoroughly and vigorously questioned concerning the anonymous communication. If he continues to deny having sent it I believe he should be acquainted in detail with the reasons for his being suspected and then he should be asked if he does not want to undergo a test on the lie detector in order to clear himself of suspicion.

Young should in all events be transferred and should not be brought to the Bureau as a supervisor. He should be censured for not being available from 2:00 P.M. until 11:50 P.M. on March 25; also, for being openly critical of SAC Traynor, which he admitted to me he had been.

Other Possible Suspects.

Agent Charles E. Musgrave admitted that he had made critical comments concerning the statement alleged to be made by SAC Traynor at the initial Agents' conference. He also admitted that he made a comment to the effect that SAC Traynor had been too harsh in his criticism and comment concerning the manner in which the firearms had been cleaned. Musgrave had been responsible for the condition of the firearms and other material kept in the vault. Musgrave had obviously been somewhat perturbed as to how he was going to keep the vault in first class condition and also give his investigative cases proper attention, and at the same time comply with the office rule that Agents were not to be in the office more than five hours per week during office hours with out prior approval of the Agent in Charge. McKenna passed on to Young the rumor that Traynor had used Agent McKenna to transport his wife on a shopping. tour in a Bureau car on Bureau time. Musgrave is a Special Employee Agent, formerly with the West Virginia State Police. In his initial conference with me he stated that the reaction to the SAC's talk to Agents at the first conference was not favorable. He frankly stated that his own personal reaction was not favorable. Musgrave stated that there were several statements made by Traynor which he personally had not liked, although they were not directed at him individually, and that this was true of several of the Agents in the office. In Musgrave's opinion the morale in the office was definitely not at its peak. However, he thought that whatever the problem existed it would be worked out all right. He volunteered the statement that SAC Traynor has the ability, knowledge, honesty, and sincerity to run an office properly and will do so if given the opportunity. It is quite apparent that Musgrave and Young, who lived next to each other at the Buffalo Athletic Club, talked to each other about the administration of the office by Traynor and that each had expressed critical comment concerning specific acts or statements by Traynor. Musgrave is a straightforward, outspoken sort of a person, and although there might be considered to exist some grounds for suspecting him for having sent the communication, I do not believe he had anything to do with it.

Musgrave was under transfer to report to the Bureau for SIS training on March 29, but in accordance with Bureau instructions he was held in Buffalo. It is recommended that he not be considered for SIS training at present, that he be transferred to another office in the United States, and that he receive a letter of censure for passing on gossip to Agent Young concerning the alleged use by SAC Traynor of Agent McKenna to drive his wife on a shopping trip in a Bureau car on Bureau time.

Agent Donald B. Gray stated to me he was unfavorably impressed by the comments of Traynor at the initial Agents' conference; that so far as he could tell by observation the reaction of the Agents to the SAC's statements was successively amazement, consternation, and anger. He stated that in addition two or three Agents whom he was unable to name had indicated to him that they felt that way concerning the SAC's statements. However, Gray stated that he has received good treatment from the Agent in Charge and that whenever he had been in to see the SAC he had been cheerful, friendly, and helpful. However, he stated that there is an atmosphere of tension in the office, a feeling that if something wrong is done it will be "a dire catastrophe." This Agent stated he had heard the rumor that Traynor had used an Agent to take his wife on a shopping trip in a Bureau car on Bureau time but that he did not believe it and it was his impression that it had been heard by only a few Agents in the office. Based on the information received from Agents Young and Musgrave it appears that according to the gossip Agent John J. McKenna was supposed to have come to Agent Gray and inquired of him whether Gray thought McKenna ought to take the SAC's wife on a shopping trip. Gray admitted that he had heard the rumor but he stated he does not remember whether McKenna was mentioned in connection therewith nor does he have any recollection having disseminated this rumor, although he stated he could neither confirm nor deny that he had done so. It appears quite definitely that Gray did pass this rumor to Agent Musgrave. Gray was quite nervous when I interviewed him. He stated his nervousness was due to the fact that his baby had fallen and injured itself and he had not yet learned the extent of the baby's injury. However, he exhibited nervousness on a subsequent occasion when he knew that the baby was not seriously injured. I believe his nervousness was the result of the fact that he knew he had been critical of the SAC, had passed gossip concerning the SAC, and was worried as to the consequences. I do not believe that he had anything to do with the anonymous communication, although it is obviously a possibility.

Agent Joseph J. O'Neill might logically be considered as a suspect in this instance because he was suspended for ten days from March 7-18 and was held responsible for paying the $200 damage resulting from a fire in the Rochester resident agency on February 17, 1943. Also, O'Neill told me that at the time Traynor told him he was suspended for the fire that he probably would have been suspended anyway along with other Agents for failure to properly clean firearms. However, Traynor advised that he had merely informed C'Neill that he might as well know at that time that he was displeased with his failure to properly handle the assignment to clean firearms. With reference to the fire, O'Neill mentioned to me on March 23 that he understood that Agent Edward T. Burns had reported to Traynor on February 26 that on that date sparks had been seen emitting from the wall plug adjacent to the point at which the fire had started in the Rochester resident agency. O'Neill stated he had inquired of Traynor shortly before he had begun his suspension whether that information had been forwarded to the Bureau and was informed that it had not as yet; that on March 23 O'Neill did not know whether the information had ever been furnished to the Bureau. My inquiry disclosed that this information was disclosed to the Bureau by letter dated March 13. However, no inquiry was made at all into the cause of the short circuit until I raised the question; and Traynor covered this matter on March 26 and it is reported later in this memorandum. I do not believe that O'Neill has any special resentment to the disciplinary action, taken in his case, although it probably is true that several of the Agents. sympathized with him. O'Neill is a possible suspect but I do not believe he sent the communication and he made a signed statement affirming that he did not.

Agents Bennett Hirsh and Fred Finley might conceivably be considered possible suspects for the reason that it became known the morning of March 22 that Agent Donald E. Moore had been designated as an additional supervisor in the Buffalo Office. Hirsh and Finley being old, experienced Agents might have felt that they should have been designated. Hirsh was in the office all day except for lunch and dinner, and Finley was also in the office with the exception that at 3:15 he signed out on the number three register and returned at 3:45 P.M. The register indicated he went to see Mr. Zissler at the Liberty Bank Building. He informed me that he went to see Mr. Zissler about a rental problem and saw him at that time because he had a speaking engagement that evening and would have no other opportunity to discuss the problem, which was of a somewhat urgent nature. I do not believe either of these Agents had anything to do with the sending of the communication, if for no other reason because of their experience in the Bureau.

Clerical employee Robert E. Stuhlmiller wrote a letter to Mr. Kenneth Piper dated approximately March 24, in which he indicated that he was not satisfied with his progress since Mr. Piper left the Buffalo Office and requested a transfer to SIS. After my inquiry he stated that he did not mean to complain; that he only felt that he could get a chance to do more typing if he were transferred to SIS or to an office like San Juan. He stated that he has no grievance, and requested Piper to have his name placed on the list of persons requesting transfers either to SIS or San Juan.

Agent C. Richard Fulmer was under instructions to report to the Bureau on March 29 for SIS training and was held in Buffalo in accordance with Bureau instructions. There is no reason for suspecting this employee and I know of no reason why he should not be used on SIS work as originally planned.

General Personnel Conditions in Buffalo Office.

SAC Traynor has unfortunately made statements which some of the Agents naturally resented. On Tuesday evening, March 23, he held a conference for all Agents except those who were on road trips or serving at resident agencies, and for approximately thirty minutes he berated them in a very loud voice. He spoke to them in an impatient, exasperated, bullying manner, belittling the Agents. I got the impression of a hard boiled top sergeant berating a squad of raw recruits, as sometimes pictured in the movies. The low point of his talk was reached when he said, "I want to know where you are and not have to sit around and stew and fret and wonder where in hell is that silly bastard." After the conference was over I talked to Mr. Traynor and told him I thought that the latter comment was highly inappropriate and prejudiced his own chances of functioning satisfactorily as an Agent in Charge, because he would be unable to get the cooperation of the men. I also advised him as to my general reaction to his talk to the Agents along the lines set out above.

I was later informed by Agent Musgrave that an Agent mentioned to him, whose name he did not recall, that he was on the verge of standing up in the conference and challenging the obscene reference to the Agents.

At the initial conference for Agents after Traynor took over the Buffalo Office he made several statements which the Agents resented. One of these was to the effect that in the Bureau today it is a dog eat dog proposition. This is how the Agents remembered it. Traynor stated that he used the expression "everything in the world today is a dog eat dog proposition" and in this connection explained the need and regulations. Another statement attributed to Traynor at the opening conference was to the effect that he was going to grade the Agents in the office in accordance with how they kept him out of trouble, and that he had the last say since he wrote the efficiency reports. Traynor stated that in substance he told the Agents he was going to grade them in efficiency ratings in accordance with the way they carried out the Bureau's instructions, and pointed out to them that they realised that an Agent who did not perform his work properly, merited the greatest consideration in efficiency ratings.

Another statement attributed to Traynor at the initial Agents' conference was that as an Agent he never received a rating better than "very good" and that no Agent should receive a higher rating than the boss. Traynor admitted that he had made a reference to the fact that he had never received as an Agent an efficiency rating higher than very good and that he pointed out to the Agents that he would expect that an Agent to get an excellent rating must come up to Bureau standards of efficiency.

It is my impression that in his choice of words in speaking at Agents' conferences. Also, he has brought into his talks to Agents items which were not germane to the discussion and would have been better left unsaid. I refer particularly to the "dog eat dog" better than very good as an Agent. Coupled with the unfortunate selection of ideas and words for use in Agents' conferences is the fact that Traynor has a very loud voice which he uses without restraint, and he has a rather imperious bearing. Also, I believe he very definitely needs to develop more warmth to Traynor's attention.

Traynor, upon his arrival in Buffalo, put into effect the office rule that Agents could stay in the office five hours per week during office hours without prior approval from him, but that his approval must be obtained for time in excess of five hours per week. When the general Bureau rule concerning being out of the office between 8:35 A.M. and 5:30 P.M. was abrogated, Traynor continued his office rule in force. This has caused some resentment among the Agents of the office. Traynor has stated to the Agents, and stated during the conference held March 23, that he would grant time in excess of five hours per week as long as there was a valid reason therefor, and also stated that he had never refused such a request since coming to Buffalo. However, there was something about the manner in which he made the statement that we doubtedly would cause Agents to avoid if at all possible making a request for additional time in the office.

As previously set out in this memorandum, Agent Young stated that he definitely got the impression from Traynor that he should sign out of the office on the number three card even though he was physically present in the office, and alleged that the SAC stated in effect, "What I don't know won't hurt me, and as long as you sign out on the number three register I don't care where you interview them." Traynor denied making any such statement or giving any indication that it was permissible to stay in the office although signed out. Traynor stated that in checking on Agent Young he found that Young had failed to telephone the office the required number of times when he was out of the office in accordance with Bureau regulations; that later he found that this Agent was in the habit of coming into the office and the time he carled in and on some occasions going back into the back end of the office, where he would make telephone calls and conduct certain business. In discussing this matter with this Agent, Traynor stated he indicated to him that he did not believe that it was necessary for him, if he was in the building seeing the United States Attorney and going by the office, to stop at the corner drug store and telephone the office, but that he could come in, check the number three register to see if there were any messages for him, and making entry on the number three card under the time for noting calls in; and similarly that if he came into the office when working nearby to make a telephone call it would be all right to merely sign the number three register indicating that he had called in; that this practice would probably be all right so long as he did not stay in the office a period of time in excess of five or ten minutes. Traynor stated that he told this Agent that he had worked in offices where he suspected that some of the Agents, in order to avoid criticism from the Agent in Charge, had signed out and then conducted some business in the office before leaving the office, but pointed out that he did not approve of this procedure and of course did not want it in the Buffalo Office. In my opinion it was entirely undesirable for Traynor to have made a reference to his suspicions of improper practices on the part of Agents in other offices. A person looking for a subtle meaning idden in his statement might conclude that he was suggesting that this would be a way to avoid criticism by the SAC.

Traynor prepared a memorandum for all clerical employees, setting out the general average daily overtime in January for clerical employees and for stenographers, and listed the names of those who had performed generally less than the office average. He prepared a similar memorandum for all Agents of the office. There were a few Agents who expressed the opinion that it would be condusive to better feeling among the personnel if this problem were taken up individually with the employees concerned. All of the Agents who mentioned this to me were among those not listed in the memorandum. It is my opinion that it would be preferable to discuss this with the individual employees, and I so advised Traynor.

In my opinion Traynor has somehow or other created the impression in the minds of at least several of the Agents that if they fail to comply with instructions as he has brought them to the attention of the Agents he would bring the matter to the attention of the Bureau for administrative action. Agent O'Neill stated that on the date he was advised by Traynor that he was suspended for ten days because of the fire in the Rochester resident agency. Traynor also stated to him that he probably would have been suspended anyway, along with other Agents, for failure to properly clean fire arms, and the reason he was not recommended for suspension or probation in connection with this incident was that a memorandum to all Agents, setting out the responsibility in connection with the maintenance of equipment, was not actually issued until a few days subsequent to the failure of these Agents to properly clean the guns. Traynor stated that he had told O'Neill that he might as well know that he was displeased with the manner in which he had cleaned the guns but indicated to him that no action would be taken with respect to reporting the matter to the Bureau in view of the fact that the memorandum was not issued until a day or two after the cleaning of the guns. He did tell O'Neill that if the failure to clean the guns had occurred after the issuance of the memorandum he would have referred the matter to the Bureau for whatever action it deemed appropriate. In my opinion it is probable that Traynor has overemphasized the threat of Bureau disciplinary action.

With reference to the fire at the Rochester resident agency I do not believe this incident was properly handled because no Agent was assigned to conducting an investigation; no one was assigned to interrogate the Agents who were in Rochester at the time of the fire. The SAC was in Rochester at the time of the fire for the purpose of making a speech and he and others made a brief examination of the scene of the fire and discussed the origin of the fire, as a result of which there seemed to be no question that the fire had started in the wastepaper basket underneath the table. However, the letter to the Bureau dated February 19, 1943, concerning this fire stated that the fire started at the end of the table farthest away from the wall, whereas Traynor informed me that a subsequent examination of the scene indicated very conclusively that the fire started not quite at the center of the table, approximately 2 to 22 feet from the wall. Under date of March 13 a letter to the Bureau from the Buffalo Office advised that Agents assigned to the Rochester resident agency had observed sparks several inches long emitting from the wall plug, which was located in the immediate vicinity of the table, and that these sparks or flames had been noticed on the morning of February 26. This matter was brought to the attention of Traynor on that date, at which time no word had been received from the Bureau as to disciplinary action against Agent O'Neill. However, the information concerning the short circuit and the resultant sparks was not forwarded to the Bureau until March 13. When I first discussed this matter with Traynor no inquiry whatsoever had been made as to the cause of the short circuit. His explanation of the delay in forwarding this information to the Bureau and for not making any inquiries as to the cause of the short circuit was that all indications were, and are, that the fire originated from the wastepaper basket and could not have originated from the electrical outlet. It was on March 26 that Traynor interviewed William Schnackle, the building custodian and repairman for the old Post Office in Rochester where the resident Agent's office is located, who advised him that subsequent to the knowing of the short circuit in the electrical outlet he removed the outlet and replaced it. He further advised Traynor that the short circuit could have occurred in one of two ways: that either someone along the same electrical line in another office would plug something in the line, which might cause sparks to shoot out; or that it could be short circuited by an insertion in the electrical plug in the outlet itself. Schnackle also advised Traynor that there were two offices occupied by the Coast Guard on the same circuit as the wall plug in the resident agency office, but that on the night of the fire they were not occupied.

It is my opinion that in view of the damage which was first estimated at $200 and subsequently has been estimated as high as $500, for which agent O'Neill has been held responsible, that an Agent not assigned to the resident agency and not involved in any other way should have been assigned to make a full and impartial investigation and that this should have covered an inquiry as to whether any member of the building custodial force was known to have entered the resident agency office during the interval between the time O'Neill left the office and the time the fire was discovered, notwithstanding the fact that this was not more than approximately twenty minutes. It is my opinion that the failure to have an investigation conducted and the failure to promptly forward to the Bureau the information concerning the short circuit has caused some discussion among the Agents of the office, although I can not cite any specific instances.

A few Agents indicated that Traynor has made rather frequent threats of administrative action, and that this has created a somewhat uneasy state of mind on the part of some Agents in this office. Traynor stated that since coming to Buffalo he has from the beginning insisted that Bureau regulations be complied with, that the technical apparatus be in order at all times, and that in connection therewith he has emphasized that it is the responsibility of the Agents who use the equipment to see that it is in good working condition, and, if not, to advise the supervisor so that it can be repaired, and that failure to do so will result in his recommending to the Bureau that appropriate administrative action be taken. He stated that as far as he could recall he has referred to the possibility of recommending administrative action on the following two occasions: at the quarterly conference of all Agents; at a new Agents' conference; and that this matter is brought to the attention of each new Agent who arrives in the office. Also, a memorandum dated February 3, 1943, referred to this matter. In this connection it may be noted that when I talked to Agent Musgrave about some critical comments he was supposed to have made concerning SAC Traynor, he told me that Traynor on one occasion had told him that he had found the guns dirty about two weeks after they had been cleaned and told Musgrave in effect on that occasion, "It seems to me I will have to do some suspending around here in order to make the Agents realize their responsibility. That notonly applies to the ones who are assigned to the cleaning of the guns, but that also applies to you, Mr. Musgrave." As previously indicated, Musgrave was at that time responsible for the condition of the vault.

Most of the Agents either made no unfavorable comment whatsoever concerning conditions in the office or else referred to the rule concerning five hours per week in the office and the memorandum concerning overtime. However, several of the Agents referred to the statements attributed to the SAC at the initial Agents' conference, and also referred to a tendency of the SAC to express himself strenuously and vigorously with reference to the possibility of administrative action. On the other hand, no Agent except Young accused him of being dishonest or disloyal or unfair. Musgrave stated that he thought Traynor was too harsh in his comments concerning the manner in which the guns had been cleaned. Two or three of the Agents mentioned that Traynor was strict but that he was fair and impartial. It appears that the Agents who have been in attendance at the recently held police conferences with Agent Traynor have learned to know him better, and generally they indicate a more favorable attitude toward his personality. With reference to the clerical employees, none of them made statements to indicate any complaints or dissatisfaction with the exception of Mrs. Mary M. Stone, who stated it was her impression that there was a little tension resulting from numerous office memoranda and that this occurred mainly during the first month after Traynor came to Buffalo. However, in her opinion he is entirely fair. She stated that during the first month the girls got the impression that Traynor was a little unfriendly but that after the first quarterly conference "they thought he was very nice."

I previously referred to the gossip to the effect that Traynor had used Agent McKenna to take his wife on a shopping trip in a Bureau automobile on Bureau time. It appears that this statement was passed from Agent Gray to Musgrave, who in turn passed it to Young. There is no indication that it circulated any more widely. It appears probable that Agent Gray received the Information from McKenna, who is now assigned to SIS. According to the gossip, McKenna came to Gray and asked him whether he should do it. The facts with reference to this gossip are as follows: The incident occurred on February 18, 1943. On that date Traynor was in Rochester on official business. Mrs. Traynor telephoned Assistant SAC A. C. Schlenker and stated she wanted to purchase a watch as a surprise gift for Mr. Traynor and inquired whether he could refer her to an appropriate shop, since she was new in the city. Schlenker made an inquiry and found that McKenna had recently purchased a watch, and arranged for Mrs. Traynor to meet McKenna in the office at 1:30 P.M. that date. Schlenker assumed that this was McKenna's lunch period; that the shop was in the immediate downtown section; and that the entire time required on the part of McKenna would be only a few minutes in order to introduce Mrs. Traynor to the shop-keeper. McKenna has not been interviewed because he was not in the Buffalo Office when I was there. According to SAC Traynor he ascertained subsequent to my inquiry of him that McKenna insisted on driving to the vicinity of the shop, which was only a few blocks from the office, stating that he had official business in that vicinity. After the purchase was made he insisted on driving Mrs. Traynor home, stating that he had official business in that vicinity, and accordingly he drove her home. Traynor states he had no knowledge of this matter until he inquired of his wife on March 29, and Schlenker stated he had no knowledge that an automobile was used until the matter was brought to his attention on March 30.

I have already recommended that Agents Young, Musgrave, and Gray be transferred and censured for their participation in this gossip. It is suggested that the Bureau will desire to make an appropriate inquiry concerning the participation of Agent McKenna in this gossip.

The following enclosures are attached hereto:

- 6. Signed statement dated March 25, 1943, by Agent Joseph J. O'Neill
- 7. Signed statement dated March 30, 1943, by Agent Donald E. Moore.

  - a. Memorandum for all Agents, dated January 21, 1943.
  - b. Memorandum for all Agents, dated February 3, 1943.
  - c. Memorandum for selected Agents, dated February 8, 1943.
  - d. Memorandum for all clerical employees, dated February 17, 1943.
  - e. Memorandum for all Agents, dated February 17, 1943.

Summary of Recommendations.

- 1. That Agent John D. Young be brought to Washington when his physician certifies he is ready to return to work, in order that he may be given a further examination at the Naval Hospital; that he then be vigorously questioned concerning the anonymous communication, and if he continues to deny having sent it arrange a lie detector test in order to enable him to clear himself of suspicion. In all events, Young should be transferred from Buffalo and should not be brought to the Bureau as a supervisor. He should receive close supervision. He should be censured for not being available from 2:00 P.M. until 11:50 P.M. on March 25 and for being openly critical of SAC Traynor.
- 2. Agent Charles E. Musgrave should not be considered for SIS training at present. He should be transferred from the Buffalo Office. He should receive a letter of censure for passing on gossip to Agent Young concerning the alleged use by SAC Traynor of Agent McKenna to drive his wife on a shopping trip in a Bureau car on Bureau time. He should also be censured for being critical of SAC Traynor.
- 3. Agent Donald B. Gray should be transferred from Buffalo. He should be censured for passing to Musgrave gossip concerning the SAC and for being critical of SAC Traynor. This Agent was quite nervous on two occasions when I interviewed him. For this reason he might be considered the number 2 suspect in this case, and the Bureau might wish to consider bringing him to Washington for further questioning. It is my opinion that he is of such a disposition that the further pressure upon him resulting from his being brought to Washington would cause him to make a full disclosure, in the event he did withhold anything during my interviews with him. I have no reason to believe he has withheld anything other than the substantial nervousness which he exhibited.
- 4. Agent Joseph J. O'Neill has been in the field approximately three months and undoubtedly will be transferred in the usual routine; although there appears no blame attributable to him I believe it desirable that he be transferred from Buffalo.
- 5. Agent C. Richard Fulmer was scheduled to report to the Bureau on March 29 for SIS training but was held in Buffalo until the inquiry was completed. I see no reason for suspecting this employee and know of no reason why he should not be used on SIS work as originally planned.
- 6. Agent John J. McKenna. It is recommended that Agent McKenna be questioned concerning participation in gossip concerning his alleged taking Mrs. Traynor on a shopping tour in a Bureau automobile on Bureau time.

Memorandum for the Director

7. SAC D. L. Traynor. The facts set out in this memorandum have raised a grave doubt as to whether Traynor is suited by temperament, personality, and judgment to establish and maintain satisfactory relations with personnel in the Field Office. If he continues along the path which he has followed and was following at the Agents! conference on March 23, I would say he should be removed as Agent in Charge. However, in view of the fact that he has undoubted intelligence and ability, it is my recommendation that when he reports for in-service training on April 12 the deficiency which he has exhibited in the handling of personnel be thoroughly gone over with him in order to point out again his shortcomings and to indicate to him as clearly as possible the path he should endeavor to follow. Thereafter, the Buffalo Office should be inspected within two months with close and thorough attention given to the personnel relations.

Respectfully,

R. T. Harbo

Buffalo, New York March 30, 1943

The following questions are by Inspector R. T. HARBO, and the answers by Special Agent DONALD E. MOORE, in the Buffalo Office on March 30, 1943:

It is alleged that you were criticised by SAC TRAYNOR for being delinquent in dictating the Quarterly National Defense report to the Bureau, and that subsequently you made the statement to an Agent concerning this matter, which was critical of SAC TRAYNOR. What are the facts in this situation?

A.

I was delinquent in dictating my quarterly summary regarding Communist Activities, and this fact was called to my attention by Mr. TRAYNOR sometime during the second week of February. Immediately after it was called to my attention I prepared the necessary report in accordance with his instructions. I remarked at the time that evidently the tickler which had been maintained in the Buffalo Office was no longer in effect on this, and I subsequently approached Mr. TRAYNOR regarding his tickler and told him that in previous quarters I had received a routing slip advising that the quarterly summary was due. I recall suggesting at the time that I believe this practice was a good one. I do not recall criticising Mr. TRAYNOR for any statements he made to me, but I did suggest that this tickler system previously mentioned be maintained.

Re: DONALD E. MOORE-SPECIAL AGENT SELECTIVE SERVICE

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to Bureau instructions, Local Board 14, 331 Madison Avenue, New York City was contacted with reference to the Selective Service status of the above mentioned Bureau employee.

Mr. Sidney Rossman, chairman of Local Board 14, has been ill and consequently the Board was delaying action on all deferment requests until his return.

On May 21, 1943, Miss Ann Breindel, Chief Clerk of Local Board 14 advised this office that the Board requested the Bureau to submit another deferment request, with the stamp indicating that it was an authorized government request. Miss Breindel further added that the Board indicated that upon receipt of this request they would continue Mr 150RE's deferment.

of Investigation has been designated as the sole civilian The Federal Bureau government investigative agency having jurisdiction over the investigation of matters pertaining to national defense such as espionage, sabotage, registration of agents of foreign principals, sedition, treason, and the like, and further, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has sole investigative jurisdiction in a great number of other Federal statutes which embrace bank robbery, kidnaping, extortion, white slave traffic, National Motor Vehicle Theft Act, and numerous others. This Bureau has also been designated by Congress as the agency officially responsible for the tabulation and dissemination of police statistics for the entire country. Under an act of Congress these statistics are gathered and are distributed to thousands of interested police and affiliated agencies every six months so that trends in crime, crime records, and crime control can be known to those to whom it is of most interest. Further than this, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has been designated as the agency having jurisdiction over the classification and maintenance of fingerprint records not only on a national basis but on an international basis. The greatest depository of fingerprint records in the world is maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, D. C. We have over sixty-seven million sets of fingerprints on hand today and are receiving fingerprint records at a rate of approximately 87,000 each day. The military and naval authorities have issued orders that all employees of manufacturing plants operating under contracts with the War Department or Navy Department must be fingerprinted and their fingerprints sent to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for search against our existing files. Obviously the purpose of such an order is to ascertain the criminal background, if any, of persons who are occupying positions where they have access to confidential information and to eliminate from such positions those persons whose records indicate that their interests are not those of our government.

We are also receiving fingerprint records of all persons enlisting or being inducted into the army and other military and naval services. All employees of the Federal government are fingerprinted and their fingerprints searched through our files for prior criminal records, again for the purpose of guarding against the employment of persons in the Federal government whose backgrounds indicate that they might not function to the best interests of our government. We are receiving thousands of criminal fingerprints from all police agencies throughout the country and it is essential that these fingerprints be handled promptly and the contributing agency advised of any prior record so that justice may be intelligently administered. By means of this procedure the Federal Bureau of Investigation is able to identify thousands of fugitives from justice each year who otherwise might not be identified by local police agencies who do not have the benefit of prior criminal records as reflected on fingerprint cards which were made at the time of some previous arrest. Many such persons are wanted for a previous criminal act by some other law enforcement agency and are presently attempting to disguise their true identity through assuming a fictitious name. This ruse on their part is penetrated through the science of fingerprinting and the Federal Bureau of Investigation is enabled to advise the interested local law enforcement agency of the true identity of the individual and he can be held for appropriate prosecutive action, whereas if not identified, he quite possibly would have been released to continue his depredations against society.

Our criminological laboratory handles the scientific examination of evidence in cases investigated by the Federal and local law enforcement agencies. A very high percentage of the work presently being performed by the Technical Läboratory is in connection with the national war effort. Evidence collected in suspected sabotage cases is examined by the scientists in our laboratory who are qualified to handle examinations of almost any technical nature. The personnel in the Technical Laboratory have been trained through education and experience to handle such subjects as analytical chemistry, qualitative and quantitative analysis, ballistics tests, microanalysis examinations, spectrographic examinations, cryptograph and cryptanalysis work, and many other highly technical examinations.

All of the functions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are so closely inter-related that it is essential that qualified and experienced personnel be available not only to perform their own work but to train new employees. The Congress of the United States has passed several bills within the past year approving an increase in the personnel. When it is considered that the work of this Bureau is highly confidential it can be appreciated that the selection of personnel must be made with great care. It has been our experience that only one employee is obtained from every one hundred persons who have applied. It is necessary that each employee be investigated thoroughly so that there will be no possibility of having a person in our service who is not loyal to the United States. We have found that it is extremely difficult to secure qualified persons for almost any of the positions that are available. At the present time we have approximately 1.000 employees less than the number that has been authorized by Congress. Every effort is being made to obtain these additional employees as they are badly needed in order for us to properly carry on the work that has been assigned to us. We are endeavoring to obtain these additional persons without interfering in any way with the administration of the Selective Training and Service Act. In all positions where possible we are utilizing the services of female employees. With the exception of Special Agents' and Laboratory Scientists' positions, no appointment of male employees who may be eligible for military service are being made. It is absolutely necessary, however, that our experienced personnel be maintained so that the new personnel can be adequately supervised and trained.

All employees of the Federal Bureau of Investigation have been working at top speed to keep abreast of our duties. The regular work week has been extended to 48 hours, and it has been our experience in the past that an additional amount of overtime will be voluntarily performed by the employees of this Bureau in an effort to properly and expeditiously handle the tremendous volume of important work being referred to us in connection with the war effort. Obviously very little consideration can be given to replacing an experienced employee until such time as we are able to build up our present staff to the number authorized and needed.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are given sixteen weeks of training which embraces 726 hours of study. During that period of time they are trained not only in investigative techniques and procedures, but are qualified in the handling of firearms, mechanical devices, and technical devices in use by the Bureau. After entering the Field service which follows their training period, their skill, of course, increases with their length of service in the Field. It would obviously, therefore, be impossible to adequately replace an experienced Special Agent until the replacement had been in the service an equal length of time.

The science of the classification of fingerprints is one of the most exacting in the world today. Employees in law enforcement organizations handling fingerprint activities are of a profession which demands the utmost skill and honesty in the practice of that profession. In the Federal Bureau of Investigation we train Fingerprint Technicians through classroom and practical study for a period of approximately six months. At the end of that time those employees are qualified to examine sets of fingerprints and to identify like sets. This science cannot be taught overnight and the loss of a fingerprint man at any stage of his training or employment is a severe blow to the Federal Bureau of Investigation at this time when we are receiving thousands of sets of prints from all of the coordinated activities of the Government and from local law enforcement agencies.

The Laboratory Scientists of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, all graduate scientists, are thoroughly schooled in the science of criminology and today are performing duties pertaining to the successful war effort one hundred percent of their time. Their training in this field, embracing all sciences of laboratory examination which includes cryptography, chemistry, ballistics, geology, serology, and many others, has been invaluable in the solving of espionage, sabotage, and other subversive activities. It is essential that these scientists many times perform their scientific work in the field under such conditions that they could not be replaced with employees not possessing their physical attributes.

Bureau employees in positions aforementioned and for whom deferments are requested possess technical and scientific skills which renders them irreplaceable to the Federal Bureau of Investigation at this time.

I, J. Edgar Hoover, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that the foregoing statements are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

RE: DONALD E. MOORE, Special Agent;
BUFFALO FIELD DIVISION;
E.O.D. March 10, 1941;
E.O.D. Buffalo Office Aug. 17, 1941;
PRESENT GRADE AND SALARY, CAF #11, $3800 per annum;
ANNUAL EFFICIENCY RATING.

This Agent has recently been designated as a Field Office Supervisor in the Buffalo Office. Based upon his record as an Agent he merits the rating of EXCELLENT. He makes a very fine first impression, is well built, has good features and he is possessed of a fine personality. He is always neatly and immaculately attired. His investigations have shown him to be possessed of qualities of initiative, resourcefulness, force and aggressiveness. This Agent has demonstrated that he is exceedingly alert, loyal and enthusiastic. His reports are the first ones to reflect any Bureau changes and the administration of his cases has been well above average for an Agent.

With respect to his ability to dictate he is rated by all the stenographers of this office as being an excellent dictator. He operates an automobile satisfactorily. I am advised that he makes a good witness. He has a firearms average of 91.8% for all firearms. Due to his physical makeup I feel certain that he can be counted upon to handle himself satisfactorily on a dangerous assignment. He also will operate successfully on a physical surveillance, as indicated by the experience he has had in conducting Communist investigations. He does not take shorthand, but can operate a typewriter rather slowly making about 15 words per minute. His reports are in excellent form and are excellent with respect to content, organization and the undeveloped leads set out therein. They indicate that he is both resourceful and aggressive. He is outstanding in the field of law enforcement contacts and business contacts, making friends with police officers very readily and developing a number of informants for the Buffalo Office. I consider him able to organize and initiate any type of investigation without supervision. He is the type of individual who assumes responsibility and handles it in a very efficient manner.

He has worked for the most part on Sabotage and Internal Security investigations in the National Defense field and has investigated cases in the following other classifications: 26, 52 and 77.

RE: DONALD E. MOORE, Special Agent

Buffalo, New York March 31, 1943

I believe that this Agent has supervisory and administrative abilities, which will be further developed with additional experience as a Field Supervisor.

He has not operated exclusively on any technical surveillance.

He has performed 4 hrs. and 41 mins. per day overtime, which is well above the office average of 4 hrs. and 7 mins. per day for Agents of the Buffalo Field Division.

He is interested in an SIS assignment only to the extent that he would treat it as an ordinary transfer. He would not care to volunteer for it, nor would he request it. I believe that he could be counted upon to satisfactorily function on such an assignment.

Very truly yours

DUANE L. TRAYNOR,

REMARKS

You will recall that on June 28, 1943, you had Special Agent in Charge Little of the Buffalo Field Office come to Washington for the purpose of going over with him in detail delinquencies in the handling of automobiles at Buffalo. At that time you went over Mr. Baughman's reports on these automobiles which reflected that 14 of the cars were only intrair condition while the inventory reports of the Buffalo Office indicated that there were only four cars that were not in a satisfactory condition. Among the difficulties that were pointed out was the fact that a gear shift of one of the cars had been out of order since March of 1943, although the Buffalo annual inventory report on the condition of this particular car, which was submitted on April 15, 1943, reflected the car as being in good condition. Other difficulties noted were that the headlights, stop lights and rear lights were not working and there were additional minor deficiencies which would make it impossible for the cars to be used on high speed work.

Mr. Little advised you that a Clerk, Charles E. Farrell, had originally been in charge of the cars but since the latter part of May the No. 2 man of the Buffalo Office, Special Agent Donald E. Moore had been designated as responsible for the condition of the automotive equipment. You thereupon instructed SAC Little to obtain a memorandum from Special Agent Moore to explain his derelictions in the handling of these cars. You also instructed SAC Little to advise the Bureau in detail as to why he, the Agent in Charge, had permitted the cars to get in such disreputable condition. However, subsequent to your conversation with SAC Little a letter was sent to him censuring him for his derelictions in connection with this matter.

EMPLOYEES' ANSWERS

Special Agent Donald E. Moore in a memorandum to this SAC dated Muly 2, 1943, stated that he had been advised on May 28, 1943, that it would henceforth be his responsibility to make regular inspections of the Bureau cars to see whether or not they were in proper make regular inspections of the Bureau cars to see whether or not they were in proper working order. As a result of this assignment, during the succeeding week Agent Moore personally inspected all of the 27 Bureau automobiles that were then assigned to the Buffalo Field Division, with the exception of five cars which were in use at that time. Upon finishing his inspection Agent Moore stated that it was noticed that the cars were not being kept in the proper condition. In fact they were in the worse condition in which he had seen them since his assignment to the Buffalo Field Division. As a result of this inspection he deemed it advisable to designate certain Agents as responsible for the condition of the cars and that weekly inspections be made of them in order to insure that they were in proper working order at all times. He therefore dictated a memorandum to all Special Agents dated June 14, 1943, wherein it was noted that proper care was not being taken of the Bureau cars assigned to that office. The memorandum further stated that although some of the delinquencies were undoubtedly due to the inability of the Downtown Garage to meet the field office's require, ments, certain of the defects discovered were obviously due to carelessness on the part of those using the cars. No change was made at that time in the system of assigning cars which had been in effect in the Buffalo Field Division since February, 1943, nor was there any change made in the method of ordering repairs for Bureau automobiles, and Agent Moore at no time ordered or signed orders for repairs to the Bureau cars. However, in view of the unsatisfactory condition of the cars, steps had been taken to remedy that situation.

Agent Moore pointed out that most of the defects noted by Mr. T. G. Baughman were also known to him as a result of his personal inspection and the requested inspection of the various agents which was performed on the week-end of June 19, 1943. In this connection Agent Moore pointed out that when it was learned, through Clerk Farrell that previously ordered repairs to Bureau automobiles were not yet completed, he issued instructions that no minor repairs should be ordered from the Downtown Garage during the last two weeks of June. The only repairs which were to be ordered from this garage were the repairs needed to keep the cars operating in such a manner that they would be safe to drive and would not harm the cars themselves. On one occasion when the Downtown Garage (Contract Garage) had been unable to locate and repair a defective light circuit on one of the cars, an Agent had been instructed to take the car to a different garage. However, in that instance the other garage was also unable to immediately correct the difficulty. Agent Moore expressed the opinion that the cars were not in working order because of the inability of the Downtown Garage to properly make the needed repairs rather than the lack of knowledge that the repairs were needed.

* *

Clerk Charles E. Farrell stated that at the time he was placed in charge of the Clerical work of the Buffalo Field Office a new system was devised and put into effect on February 28, 1943, relative to the maintenance of the Bureau's automobiles. This new system called for the recording of repairs that had been ordered and the fact that they had been completed satisfactorily. There was an individual card for each automobile opposite the Sign Out card in the Kardex book. At the time an Agent signed a car in at the end of the day he was to indicate on the repair card just what repairs were to be ordered and then submit an order for the work. Farrell estimated that if that system were kept current at all times it would demand that the person handling it be assigned to a full day-time shift and that he be able to spend at least five hours per day on automobiles.

Farrell pointed out that he was assigned to duty in the Buffalo Office from 4 P.M. to 1 A.M. during which time the mail, switchboard, teletype, getting files and other numerous odd jobs

The definitely unco-operative attitude of the Contract Garage; (1) The definitely unco-operative approach of the Complexities of the system of the Agent personnel;

(3) The fact that repairs were sometimes not made for months after a repair order had been submitted, despite numerous requests for action;

(4) Unreliability of the Manager of the Contract Garage inasmuch as work promised for a certain time or day was often not even touched;

(5) A conflict between his working hours and the working hours of the Contract Garage.

SACs STATEMENT

SAC Little in his letter to the Bureau of July 3, 1943, stated that he realized the necessity for having all Bureau cars in excellent working condition at all times; that although the condition of the cars at the time of Mr. Baughman's inspection was most indicative of the lack of personal interest on his part, he had no excuse to offer and assured that every step would be taken to correct this situation and maintain the automobiles in efficient operating condition in the future.

SAC Little pointed out that at the time of his arrival in the Buffalo Office on May 5, 1943, there were a number of problems to be handled, one of which was the Bureau automobiles. One of the first inquiries he made was with respect to the condition of the cars, the method of assignment and whether repairs were being made promptly. He was advised that under the system which was then being followed the cars were in good shape and the assignment of the cars progressed in a most satisfactory manner.

During the first two or three weeks following his arrival he had occasion to drive several of the cars and noticed the fact that they were not in good shape and personally contacted the Downtown Garage and ordered immediate repairs on three or four cars. Following his observations of the car situation he designated Agent Moore, on May 28, 1943, to be personally responsible for inspecting cars and seeing to it that they were properly repaired. It was at that time that he began to get reports from the various Agents in the office regarding the unsatisfactory condition of the Downtown Garage, which information had been previously reported to the Bureau. In view of the poor facilities of the Downtown Garage to effectively repair the cars and in view of the attitude evidenced by the employees of the Garage, it was decided that only the emergency repairs should be made at that time and they would endeavor to secure a new Contract Garage for the fiscal year of 1944. As a result of the car inspection made by the Buffalo Office, the various faults of the cars were known to that office and repair orders were placed with the Downtown Garage to which they failed to give proper and immediate attention.

There were occasions when cars which they had ostensibly repaired were taken out on the road and found to be inefficiently repaired, requiring emergency repairs elsewhere. The Downtown Garage readily agreed to adjust matters of this nature. SAC Little further advised that the system which had been followed in placing the responsibility on a Clerk for ordering the repairs and seeing that the repairs were made was, of course, highly inadvisable and undesirable and that that procedure had been cancelled. The procedure of assigning cars to squads had, likewise, been cancelled. At the present time there were no restrictions as to the number of days an Agent might expect to use a car but the assignment of cars would be made judiciously commensurate with the requirements of the investigations being conducted by the individual Agents. Agent Moore is charged with the assignment of cars to the Agents in accordance with their needs.

SAC Little further advised that cars of the Buffalo Office were moved into the Statler Garage under the new contract, on the night of June 30, 1943, and repairs on the cars were started the following morning. These repairs were in progress at the time SAC Little transmitted his letter of July 3, 1943, to the Bureau. A detailed and thorough inspection of all the cars was also being made in order that all defects might be properly remedied. The work was being followed more closely and it was expected that all the nedessary repairs would be effected within the succeeding three weeks, at which time the cars should be in excellent operating condition and would be maintained in that manner. With respect to the variances indicated in the inventories of the Buffalo Field Division and the records of that office, concerning the condition of the cars, SAC Little advised that the automobile inventories were taken and prepared by Special Agents (A) Harry Kiefer and Raymond A. Behrmann. However, Agent Kiefer at the time of SAC Little's letter of July 3, 1943, was away on special assignment and Agent Behrmann was on annual leave. SAC Little advised that both of these Agents would be in Buffalo on July 5, 1943, at which time memorandums would be obtained from them regarding the variances observed between the inventories and the ordered repairs on the various cars.

CONCLUSIONS

In view of the information that the Bureau has received relative to the lack of co-operation which was received from the Contract Garage and also the fact that Agent Moore was not designated responsible for the condition of the cars until May 28, 1943, it is not believed that he was particularly derelict in the handling of the Bureau automobiles, nor is it believed that Clerk Farrell should be reprimanded for his failure to satisfactorily handle the car situation in the Buffalo Field Division.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Inasmuch as a letter of censure has already been directed to SAC Little it is not recommended that any action be taken so far as Agent Moore or Clerk Farrell are concerned. However, there is attached hereto, for your consideration, a letter directed to SAC Little requesting that statements be obtained from Special Agents (A) Harry Kiefer and Raymond A. Behrmann, regarding the variances observed between the inventories and the ordered repairs on the various cars.

Rederal Bureau of Investigation United States Department of Instice

SPEECH PREPARED BY SPECIAL AGENT DONALD E. MOORE

Allow me first to express my appreciation for your invitation to be with you tonight, as it is indeed a pleasure to be here and to bring you the greetings of Mr. John Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Since 1939, the FBI has been charged with a serious responsibility -- that of protecting the internal security of our country. It is concerning this responsibility that I would like to talk to you tonight. On September 6, 1939, President Roosevelt designated the FBI as the clearing house and coordinating agency to handle law enforcement activities in connection with national defense, stressing particularly espionage, sabotage and subversive activities. Subsequently, the President also called upon the citizens of the nation to cooperate in a similar manner by reporting to the FBI information brought to their attention which might indicate the existence of any activity detrimental to the nation's defense program.

In assuming this grave responsibility, the FBI first called upon the law enforcement officers with whom it had been working closely over a period of years in the field of criminal investigation. There was instituted the law enforcement officers mobilization plan, through which it was possible to coordinate and utilize the services of every law enforcement agency in the nation, just as the resources of the nation were being mobilized for defense in other Through a series of conferences held throughout the United States, which executive officers of these agencies attended, mutual problems were discussed and plans were laid for an effective program to combat espionage, sabotage and subversive activities. These plans were made in order that there would be an impregnable defense against the efforts we had every reason to believe would be made by the Axis nations to weaken the defense of the United States and those nations with whom this country is presently allied. officers representing municipal, county and state enforcement agencies were called upon to assist in the preliminary investigation of the many reports coming into our offices, in order that any potential danger might be readily uncovered and-prompt preventive action taken.

Supplementing this program, the FBI undertook to conduct a series of training schools for police officers. Recognizing that modern warfare has created new and difficult problems for the civilian population, the FBI undertook to make a study of the part that law enforcement would play in a nation's war effort. Representatives of the FBI were in London during the winter of 1940 and 1941 at the time when that city was undergoing its most destructive raids by Nazi bombers. Nightly raids brought death and injury to large numbers of civilians and created a vast amount of property damage. To law enforcement agencies, fire departments and their auxiliary agencies, fell the task of protecting the people and property to the maximum extent.

When our agents returned to this country they prepared summaries of the program that was functioning in places where war was a reality and not a mere possibility. Combined with the research and studies which have been made in the technical laboratory of the Bureau, and related information that had been conveyed to us by allied nations, we felt that there was much that could be given to the police officers of this country which would equip them for any possible emergency. In other words, it was an opportunity for this country to profit by the experience of those nations who had been required to learn at a terrific cost.

A series of schools was conducted throughout the United States to which were invited police officers of every agency.

Courses were planned in order that they could in turn plan their own auxiliary organizations and formulate a course of instruction for those groups that would be called in to assist them. When the figures for the attendance at these schools were compiled, it was found that the attendance in the western section of New York State had been the most outstanding in the entire country. This fact is one which I am sure must be a source of considerable satisfaction to the citizens, since they can realize from this that their law enforcement agencies are alert to their responsibilities and eager to train themselves and ready to accept whatever duty they might be called upon to perform.

However not all of the measures taken by the FBI to insure the internal security of our country have been recent ones. Since May 10, 1924 when J. Edgar Hoover was appointed director of the FBI by Chief Justice Harlan Fiske Stone of the U.S. Supreme Court, who was then Attorney General, there have been many important steps taken in the advancement of law enforcement. While these were for the immediate purpose of aiding crime detection and for the advancement of law enforcement as a profession, they have come to play an important part in insuring the internal security of our country.

In 1924 the FBI Identification Division was established, using as a nucleus 810,000 sets of fingerprint cards which were turned over by the Federal Penitentiary in Leavenworth, Kansas and the International Association of Chiefs of Police. From this nucleus the Identification Division has grown until at the present time there are over 66,000,000 cards on file, and this figure is rapidly being increased as a steady flow of fingerprint cards is submitted by the armed forces, law enforcement agencies, war plants and other sources.

In 1932 the Technical Laboratory was added and it is at the present time performing an invaluable service in combatting the espionage agent and saboteur. Since its establishment, the laboratory has aided materially in bringing to justice many well known and dangerous criminals but never has its work had the far reaching significance and importance as does that work which it is now performing. In the field of counter-espionage the laboratory has been able to decode and decipher the secret messages of espionage agents. It has been able to build up a comprehensive file of ciphers, codes and secret writings which will be increasingly useful as it grows in size.

In 1935 the FBI National Police Academy was formed. This academy has as its purpose the training of competent law enforcement officers in the newest methods of crime detection and qualifying them to teach others the many scientific aids that modern law enforcement officers have at their disposal in combatting crime. There have been 21 sessions of the National Police Academy since it was started and the graduates of this school have played an important part in the program of safeguarding the internal security of the nation.

As a result of Mr. Hoover's foresight in laying the framework for an organization such as the FBI, and because of several years preparation, the FBI was ready when this country was thrust into the war. Investigation had indicated that certain aliens would possibly be dangerous in the event of a national emergency and immediately on the outbreak of war the program of apprehending dangerous enemy aliens was begun. Within a few hours after Pearl Harbor more than 1400 alien enemies were apprehended and on December 8, 9 and 10, 1941 a total of 3,846 dangerous enemy aliens were taken into custody in the United States and certain of its territorial possessions. Altogether, 14,706 since war was declared, approximately 13,000 alien enemies have been taken into custody by special agents of the FBI and cooperating law enforcement officers, and during the same period approximately 24,000 premises of alien enemies have been searched. Many contraband articles were discovered by these searches, this contraband including guns of all descriptions, approximately 260,000 rounds of ammunition, short wave radio receivers and transmitters.

In addition to the apprehension of many dangerous aliens the FBI has broken up several Axis spy rings operating in this country, starting with the arrest of Frederick Joubert Duquesne and 32 other espionage agents in New York City in 1941. In the Duquesne case the apprehension and subsequent conviction of the Axis agents came about as a result of two years of constant work on the part of the FBI.

This case furnishes a good illustration of how important it is for citizens to cooperate and furnish any information they may obtain concerning our national defense to the local office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The investigation in this case was started in 1939 when William Sebold, a naturalized American citizen who had returned to Germany, was approached by the Gestapo and requested to perform espionage duties for the fatherland. Sebold consented to act as an agent and was told the identity of four German espionage agents in this country and given instructions as to his duties, then sent back to the United States on February 8, 1940.

Upon his arrival in this country he was met by agents of the FBI and after telling his complete story agreed to cooperate and to carry out his activities as a German espionage agent. From this moment on Sebold carried out instructions which were given him by FBI agents in New York City. During the work in the Duquesne case it was necessary for German agents to obtain means of communication and so, acting on instructions from Germany, arrangements were made to erect a short wave radio station at Centerport, Long Island. This was done by technical experts of the FBI and the station first contacted German espionage station AOR on May 20, 1940. The station operated from this date until the case was broken and was even operated for a while by special agents after the thirty-three members of the spy ring were taken into custody in June, 1941.

However, even though intensive investigation had revealed the identity of most of the members of the spy ring, for some time the FBI had sought to identify one "Heinrich", who was furnishing Lilly Stein, his fellow spy in the case, with information concerning aircraft production. This man was either in contact with an extremely intimate source of facts or else possessed a genius for collating particles of information into the one significant over-all fact, and FBI agents investigating the matter were unable to ascertain who "Heinrich" really was.

It took an observant Connecticut aircraft photographer who knew absolutely nothing of the FBI's interest in "Heinrich", to supply the missing piece to the puzzle.

graphs, he informed the FBI of this purchase from one Edmund C. Heine, from Detroit, Michigan. As a result of this tip, investigation disclosed that this Heine was the mysterious Heinrich who was supplying Lilly Stein with detailed information concerning aircraft production. Heine was arrested with the other 32 members of the spy ring and received a sentence of 18 years and a fine of $5,000.

Another case dealing with espionage which I would like to mention is the Ludwig case, which was broken with the arrest of Kurt Frederick Ludwig and eight other espionage agents. The activity in this case commenced in January, 1941 when the Imperial British Censorship in Bermuda intercepted certain suspicious letters. The letters apparently dealt only with family matters but in secret writing prepared through the use of an easily obtainable chemical compound there was a message pertaining to the movements of ships in the Atlantic.

There are two very interesting events connected with this case and the first of these was the break that started the FBI on the trail of the ring. This came on March 18, 1941 when two men attempted to cross a busy thoroughfare in New York City and one of them carelessly stepped in front of a taxi. He was carrying a brown brief case at the time and his companion, apparently unconcerned over his fate, grabbed the brown brief case and swiftly disappeared into The man struck by the cab died the next day the crowd. and his passing was shrouded in the deepest of mystery. The dead man had been going under the name of Julio Lopez Lido and his body, unclaimed for a time, was finally buried by the Spanish Consulate in New York. All identifying marks had been removed from the clothing of Lido before the undertaker took charge. The unknown man who ran from the scene of the accident had called the hotel of his injured companion as soon as he heard that the friend was dead and asked that the room used by him be kept intact until further notice. However, the manager at the hotel became suspicious and notified the local authorities. began an investigation and the material found in the hotel room prompted an immediate call to the New York FbI office.

When agents arrived at the hotel room another missing link was discovered in the case which began at Bermuda two months earlier. The dead man was determined to be none other than Captain Ulrich von der Osten, a Nazi army officer who had come to the United States, by way of Japan, only a month prior to his death to direct the activities of a group of spies in this country. Kurt Frederick Ludwig, Osten's companion, who disappeared with his brief case, stepped in to fill the shoes of the master spy whose career had been cut short.

Another interesting event in the Ludwig case occurred on June 28, 1941 when Paul Scholz, one of the thirty-three spies in the Duquesne Case, was taken into custody by FBI agents in a book store. Ludwig was also in the book store at the time but he was not apprehended. All members of the spy ring in which Scholz was involved had been identified while Ludwig had a ring of his own and we had not yet completed our investigation of his activities.

The Ludwig case finally ended as had the Duquesne case, with Ludwig and his eight associates being convicted of espionage and sentenced to total terms of 132 years.

Just recently in New York, the FBI arrested two persons on charges of espionage activity in behalf of Nazi Germany. Ernest Frederick Lehmitz, 57, was taken into custody for gathering and transmitting espionage information to Germany, and Erwin Harry De Spretter, 52, was charged with being an associate of Lehmitz and with furnishing Lehmitz with information which he knew was being transmitted to Germany.

Lehmitz, who pleaded guilty to the charge, was born in Hamburg, Germany, but has resided for the past twenty years on Staten Island, New York. A naturalized citizen, he returned to Germany on several occasions and was trained as an espionage agent prior to his last return to the United States in 1941. He was thoroughly schooled in the use of secret writing and had been instructed in the type of information German Intelligence desired from the United States. Immediately after his return to the United States, Lehmitz began to communicate with individuals in neutral countries, whose names had been furnished him in Germany. The letters were innocuous in appearance, however each contained secret writing pertaining to shipping conditions in New York Harbor, as well as troop and convoy movements.

De Spretter was born in Montevideo, Uruguay, and came to the United States at an early age. He returned to Germany with his father and received his education there. He attended Heidelburg University and also technical schools in Stuttgart and Berlin. During the first World War he served as a lieutenant in the German Army. He returned to the United States in 1923, after living for a time in Holland and in Uruguay.

Still a citizen of Uruguay, De Spretter has admitted assisting Lehmitz in obtaining information to be forwarded to Germany.

Another interesting case I would like to speak about is the capture of the "Terrible" Touhy Gang in Chicago during December, 1942. On October 9th, Roger Touhy, Basil Banghart and five fellow convicts escaped from Stateville Prison in Illinois and fled to Chicago, a city familiar to them. This was as dangerous a criminal syndicate as any of the gangs the FBI had to deal with in the '30s and we began immediately an intensive investigation to ascertain their whereabouts and return them to prison. It is interesting to note the means by which the FBI was able to get in on the Touhy case. Among the many violations of law which agents are called upon to investigate are violations of the Selective Service and Training Act. When Touhy and his gang broke out of Stateville Prison, they failed to notify their draft board of their new address and therefore committed a violation of the Selective Service laws. This was a Federal violation and it was, of course, our duty to locate them.

Although these men were known as the Touhy Gang, they could more accurately be called the Banghart Gang for Basil Banghart, known as "The Owl," was the domineering figure. He was a cool, shrewd and hardened criminal and ruled the others with iron discipline. He laid down strict rules against excessive drinking and talking to strangers and when two of the gang violated his orders he clubbed them with the butt of a pistol and left them for dead. Separated from the gang, they were soon apprehended by special agents and elaborate plans were made for the capture of the remainder of the gang.

It was known that the gang had formerly lived in an apartment on Leland Avenue in Chicago but had later moved to a larger apartment on Kenmore Avenue in the same city. On the evening of December 28, 1942, James O'Connor and St. Clair McInerney returned to the first apartment and were met by special agents. When told to surrender they defiantly started firing and leaped for the near-by stairway. Their resistance was met by a return barrage of shots and when they reached the bottom of the stairs, they were both dead. Although one bullet missed the head of a special agent by a quarter of an inch, fortunately, none of our men were killed in the encounter.

By this time four of the seven gang members had been apprehended and Touhy, Banghart and Edward Darlak were in the apartment on Kenmore Avenue. At 5 A.M. on December 29th, one of our men, using a public address system, specially constructed for the occasion, called to them to surrender. At the same time brilliant search lights were played through the apartment windows. All of this so unnerved the three gangsters that they meekly came out of their apartment and Mr. Hoover put the handcuffs on them. They were all visibly shaken by the terrifying combination of light and sound and later told the Director that the noise and weird lights had chilled them to the marrow.

One of the primary things which the FBI is concerned with is the investigation of sabotage. While deliberate acts of sabotage have been conspicuously absent in this war, compared with the destructive explosions in World War 1, there have been many instances of minor damage and as you know, during June, 1942, the Nazis made their first attempt to sabotage American industry. On June 13th a group of four men landed at Amagansett, Long Island and on June 17th another group of four landed on the beach a few miles below Jacksonville, Florida. Both of these groups came by German submarine, having departed from a submarine base at Lorient, France. All of the men were German born but had at one time or another spent a portion of their lives in the United States, during which time they learned the English language and became acquainted with American customs.

This group had been trained for their mission in a school specifically used for the training of sabotage agents by the German High Command. The saboteurs were instructed in the manufacture and use of explosives, incendiary material and various forms of mechanical, chemical and electrical delayed timing devices. The eight saboteurs had been recruited for this work by one Lieutenant Walter Kappe, who was attached to the German High Command and in charge of German sabotage in the United States. Kappe had lived in the United States from 1925 to 1937, during which time he took part in the organizing of the first Nazi organization in this country, the Teutonia. He later was one of the principal organizers in the United States of the Friends of New Germany, which subsequently became the German-American Bund.

Of the eight saboteurs, six were former members of the German-American Bund in this country. All but one had returned to Germany since the outbreak of war in Europe. When they arrived on the Long Island and Florida beaches they brought with them elaborate equipment and definite instructions as to the vital industries to concentrate on. They also brought with them large sums of money, $174,588.62 of which was seized when the saboteurs were apprehended by our agents. The money was turned over to the United States Treasury and is, of course, now being used to help finance our war against Germany.

Pursuant to an Executive Order of the President of the United States, the eight saboteurs were tried before a military commission composed of seven United States army officers appointed by the President. The trial was held in the Department of Justice Building in Washington and resulted in the conviction of all eight of the saboteurs. Six of them were executed on August 8, 1942, one received a sentence of life imprisonment and the other a prison term of thirty years.

It is known at the present time that others have been graduated by German Sabotage Schools, and have received instructions as did these eight concerning the best methods of sabotaging the war production of the Allied Nations.

Undoubtedly Germany's leaders intend for some of these men to come to the United States and perform the tasks left unaccomplished when the first groups were apprehended. The recent arrests of several espionage agents also show that the Axis has not given up in their efforts to obtain vital information concerning our war production and home defenses. With this in mind, I would like to urge all of you, as loyal Americans, to report any information concerning our national defense to the nearest office of the FBI. Although the information may seem insignificant at the time, it may complete a pattern which has been worked on for many months. Your cooperation is needed to safeguard the internal security of our country.

RE: SUPERVISORY SETUP:
BUFFALO FIELD DIVISION

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated June 10, 1943, requesting to be furnished with an organizational chart of the supervisory positions in the Buffalo Field Division.

There are transmitted herewith two copies of the administrative setup of the Pumfalo Field Division as of June 9, 1943.

In explanation of this chart, it is noted that those Agents assigned to squads investigating Nationalistic Organizations also conduct investigations of individual cases under the supervision of the Assistant Special Agent in Charge and the No. Two Supervisor; that five men, reflected as working under the No. Two Supervisor; conduct general Communist investigations under the supervision of the Assistant Special Agent in Charge. This special efficiency report is being submitted in view of the transfer of Special Agent DONALD E. MOORE to the Indianapolis Field Division.

Mr. MOORE'S appearance, personality and dress are very good. I consider his initiative excellent and his resourcefulness, force and aggressiveness far above average. He possesses an excellent knowledge of the Bureau's jurisdiction and exercises good judgment, is an exceedingly hard worker, dependable and loyal to the Bureau.

Mr. MOORE is considered excellent in his dictation by the stenographers of the Buffalo Field Division. He is an excellent automobile driver and, although I have not had the opportunity to personally observe him testify, I believe that he is qualified to conduct himself in a most satisfactory manner on the witness stand. He is above average in the use of the Bureau's firearms, and I would have no hesitation in using him on dangerous assignments and consider him fully capable of operating on physical surveillances.

His ability to write reports, organize and initiate investigations and contact law enforcement officials and individuals in the business field is excellent.

Since my arrival in Buffalo Mr. MOORE has been the Number Two Supervisor, on which desk he has handled the Internal Security cases. He has evidenced his ability to organize the work in these types of cases and to direct the investigations along logical lines with a minimum of investigative time. He possesses definite qualities of leadership which will more fully develop with further experience, and I consider him fully qualified and capable of handling supervisory work for the Bureau in the field and at the Seat of Government.

Mr. MOORE has recently been authorized by the Bureau to make talks before small groups and has had the opportunity to make one talk before leaving the Buffalo Field Division.

I have read this report:

Dear Sir:

Mr. ALEXANDER M. CAMPBELL, United States Attorney for the Northern District of Indiana, maintains his office at Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Until recently five resident agents were stationed at Fort Wayne. Former Special Agent CLAUDE K. LEE, prior to his death, was resident agent there. Agent D. F. X. CALLAHAN, Resident Agent at Fort Wayne, is presently on special assignment to the New York Field Division and, consequently, three Resident Agents are now attempting to handle the work which was formerly investigated by five Resident Agents.

I believe that one experienced Special Agent should be stationed at Fort Wayne, Indiana and consequently, I desire to recommend that the Bureau designate Special Agent DONALD E. MOORE as Resident Agent at Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Mr. Moore is a Special Agent and as such holds a key position as designated by the Review Committee of the Mar Manpower Commission within the meaning of Executive Order 9309. The performance of his duties is essential and critical to the execution of the work assigned by law and Executive Directive to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

To the Federal Bureau of Investigation is assigned the responsibility of investigating all acts of espionage, sabotage and all actions tending to undermine the internal security of the nation. We must also investigate and enforce all those federal statutes assigned to the investigative jurisdiction of this Bureau such as: bank robbery, kidnaping, interference with the interstate transportation of goods, National Stolen Property Act, White Slave Traffic Act, etc., the enforcement of which is necessary to the preservation of the national health, safety and interest.

To carry on this work it is necessary to maintain a corps of trained investigators. Mr. Moore is such a trained investigator. In the attached Form 42 S further information relative to Mr. Moore is set forth.

Traffic Act, etc. They are trained in and required to maintain constant skill in the use of highly technical equipment, technical processes, such as those necessary for the development of latent fingerprints, concealed or obliterated numbers upon firearms, to understand the use of code messages, to conduct physical surveillances of subjects of espionage and similar cases, sometimes for periods of many months, and when necessary, to assume a necessary character to enable them to fit in an undercover capacity into the activities and operations of groups such as foreign agents, who are engaged in thwarting the war effort.

The arducusness and importance of the work of Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation was readily recognized by the military and naval leaders. The Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, for the Secretary of the Navy, requested Special Agent employees of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to submit their resignations from reserve commissions held by them in the naval services because it had been determined that those Special Agents could better serve their country in their present assignments than if they were to be called into active naval service. The Secretary of War, in 1942, addressed personal communications to 168 Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation who at that time held reserve commissions in the Army. The Secretary of War at that time advised the Special Agents that their employment in the FBI is of such vital importance to the national defense as to necessitate their remaining at their posts of duty despite the fact that they held reserve commissions in the United States Army, and the request was made that these Agents, through the proper channels, submit their resignations from their commissions.

General Lewis B. Hershey of the Selective Service System pointed out in his Directive to all Local Boards of December 29, 1941, that Special Agent positions of the FBI we're most important and essential to the national health, safety, and interests, and that the national defense functions of the FBI should not be impaired by the removal of trained personnel from critical positions in the Bureau.

The position of Special Agent has always been considered the most critical of all positions in the FBI, since, with the tremendous bulk of work placed upon us due to the war emergency, it is essential that a trained qualified staff be available for the handling of this work. If the Federal Bureau of Investigation cannot continue to retain its personnel in this critical position, aid and comfort would most certainly be given to the enemy and others whose interests are inimical to the best interests of the country today. Up to the present time the full complement of Special Agent personnel has not been secured and every effort is being made to secure the necessary additional Special Agent personnel.

I, J. Edgar Hoover, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that the foregoing statements are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

This position has been designated as a key position by the Review Committee of the War Manpower Commission.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has been designated as the sole civilian government investigative agency having jurisdiction over the investigation of matters pertaining to national defense such as espionage, sabotage, registration of agents of foreign principals, sedition, treason, and the like, and further, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has sole investigative jurisdiction in a great number of other Federal statutes which embrace bank robbery, kidnaping, extortion, white slave traffic, National Motor Vehicle Theft Act, and numerous others. The investigative work in connection with the above violations is performed by the Special Agent personnel of this Bureau, who are recruited from applicants between the ages of twenty-three and forty. They must be graduates of a law school or an accounting school with the necessary accounting experience, or graduates of a university with extensive investigative experience, or with linguistic qualifications, or have basic educational training and possess satisfactory prior law enforcement experience which will enable them to satisfactorily perform the duties imposed upon them. For certain of the scientific investigative work, Special Agents are secured who primarily are qualified in the sciences, such as ballistics, chemical analysis, spectography, cryptography, mineralogy, metallography, toxicology, and other like sciences. Applicants for appointment to the position of Special Agent must meet the physical standards and requirements for this position, which are exceedingly high. They must have vision of no less than 20/40 in one eye, 20/50 uncorrected, both eyes to be corrected to 20/20. must have no color deficiency whatever.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation undergo a rigorous training program. All newly appointed Special Agents in the Federal Bureau of Investigation attend training classes for a period of sixteen weeks; the hours of training are from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. daily, which course of study is equivalent to two full years of college study. During this period of training, they are thoroughly instructed in the basic rules and regulations and jurisdictions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. They must satisfactorily pass numerous written examinations during their period of training. If a trainee fails to pass any of these examinations, he is dropped from the school.

The duties of a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are most arduous. They must be available at a moment's notice to go to any part of the United States or to any assignment outside the United States. The hours of duty for these employees are such that they must be in excellent physical health. The average work week for a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation is no less than seventy hours. The work of a Special Agent, regardless of his particular qualification, is such that he cannot lead a sedentary or well regulated life. Due to the small number of Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation presently handling the work under the jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation within and without the continental United States, it is necessary that the entire staff be highly mobile.

Special Agents are required to be able to conduct investigations in more than 100 types of cases, including espionage, sabotage, subversive activities, frauds against the government, kidnaping, extortion, bank robbery, White Slave

Dear friend Edgar----

The above cases were won by the Government this week. I write you to express my great appreciation for the outstanding work of Special Agent Donald Moore in these cases.

He did the best job I have seen in this type of case.

He developed 41 excellent witnesses in the Einseidel case and 35 in the Arlic Case. His work won these cases.

Am taking time out to write you personally in this matter-because of a job well done.

Hon. Don Hostetter, Special Agent in Charge, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Indianapolis, Indiana

Dear Mr. Hostetter: Re: U. S. vs. Eugene Einseidel

You are advised that the Government was successful in the prosecution of the above-captioned case. At the commencement of the trial on Saturday morning, the 19th, Einseidel, through his counsel, voluntarily surrendered his certification of citizenship to the Court and an order was entered cancelling same, thus obviating the necessity of a prolonged trial.

I would be remiss, however, if I did not call your attention to the fact that Einseidel, whom I regard as potentially the most dangerous person in this district, would never have surrendered voluntarily his certificate were it not for the excellent work done by Special Agent Don Moore: Agent Moore had accumulated more than 41 witnesses who were ready to testify in this case. He developed the witnesses through long hours of tedious work, day and night, during the past few weeks.

The investigative job of Special Agent Moore in this case is perhaps the most outstanding work I have ever seen performed by any agent of the Bureau.

Respectfully,

He does not have a law degree, however, he does have an AB degree with two years of law and his development seems to have been above everage. He is intelligent, has possibilities, and shows signs of having administrative ability.

SPECIAL AGENTS

DUTIES ACTUALLY PERFORMED: This employee is a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and in such capacity performs criminal and civil investigative work in connection with the many matters under the primary jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. At the present time and since the declaration of the first limited emergency in 1939, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation have been utilized a great majority of the time in investigating matters pertaining to espionage, sabotage, counter-espionage, and like matters under the primary jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This Agent, inhis present capacity, is charged with the responsibility of conducting such investigations so that the internal security of the country may be safeguarded. addition to the many matters of internal security which must be investigated by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, there is also under the jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation the enforcement of the kidnaping, extortion, bank robbery, white slavery, motor vehicle theft and numerous other statutes. In performing the duties of a Special Agent in the Federal Bureau of Investigation, every Special Agent must be thoroughly qualified to handle all types of our work. It is not possible to have specialists in one line of endeavor and the work, due to its arduousness, makes it necessary that every Agent be capable of performing arduous physical exertion, that every Agent be fully qualified in the use of all types of firearms utilized by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that every Agent be appropriately trained in self-defense tactics so that he may take into custody any individual who has been charged with a violation of a Federal statute, regardless of whether it may be necessary to have physical encounter with such an individual in order to effect his apprehension.

It has been necessary for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, since the declaration of the first emergency in 1939 to greatly expand its force. All applicants who possessed the basic qualifications and were appointed to Special Agent positions were given a rigid and extensive course of training covering a period of approximately three months before they were sent to the field to perform actual investigative work.

AVERAGE HOURS WORKED PER WEEK: The regular working hours per week for Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are 48 hours; however, for the past 10 years, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation have continuously averaged from 70 to 80 working hours per week. The condition of the work of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at this time makes it necessary that the Agents necessarily continue to perform such hours of work. They are not compensated for any work over 48 hours a week, the remaining hours being voluntarily worked by them. In addition thereto, every Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation must be in continuous contact with his headquarters and is subject to 24-hour duty, many times it being necessary for him to work for extended periods of time without proper food and rest.

HOW LONG WILL IT TAKE TO REPLACE THIS EMPLOYEE: The Federal Bureau of Investigation, under its existing appropriations, is authorized to have 4,853 Special Agents. We have not been able to fully recruit this staff of Special Agents and it cannot at this time be said that this Special Agent can be replaced in the future. The pending work of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which consists mainly of matters pertaining to the internal security of the country, is in a delinquent condition. At the present time more than 50,000 cases of violations of Federal statutes under the primary jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation such as espionage, kidnaping, subversive activities, bank robbery, white slavery, etc., are in a delinquent status. It is essential that our experienced personnel be continued if we are to properly perform the duties imposed upon us due to the present war condition.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation, since the passage of the Selective Service Act, has been more incumspect in the appointment of applicants to positions in this Bureau and when applicant who may have possessed all of the qualifications for appointment to the position of Special Agent was subject to induction into the military service within any reasonable period of time, he was not given consideration for appointment to the position of Special Agent under any circumstances. In the event an applicant may have been subject to induction in the distant future due to dependency or other classification, favorable consideration was not given his application unless concurrence was given by his Local Draft Board.

Under present conditions, with the manpower problem so acute, the Federal Bureau of Investigation finds it is impossible to recruit draft-free applicants for appointment to Special Agent positions. It is not possible to appoint those physically disqualified or those in advanced years because of the hours which must be worked, and the hardships which must be endured. The physical activity which is necessary makes it essential that only those who can withstand the most arduous physical exertion be considered for Special Agent appointments.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ACTIVITIES OF THIS COMPANY: The Federal Bureau of Investigation has been charged by Congress and by the President with the enforcement of certain Federal statutes and the internal security measures promulgated by the Congress and the President. The Federal Bureau of Investigation has sole jurisdiction of the civilian internal security of our country and under such jurisdiction investigates matters pertaining to espionage, sabotage, counter-espionage, activities of foreign Agents, activities of subversive groups and many other matters which pertain to the internal security of the nation. We also have jurisdiction over the investigation of crimes such as kidnaping, bank robbery, extortion, white slavery, automobile theft, impersonation, illegal wearing of uniforms, war frauds and many other crimes against the safety and security of the people of our nation.

In addition to the investigative activities of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, its Identification Division is the largest repository in the world for fingerprint records. Under Congressional Act, appropriating funds for the operation of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, this Bureau is charged with the responsibility of gathering identification data and disseminating it to various law enforcement agencies, government agencies and others who, by law, are entitled to have such information.

The majority of the work of the Identification Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at the present time pertains to national defense. During the past year approximately 70,000 sets of fingerprint records were received daily and our total collection of fingerprint records is over 80,000,000 sets. Large numbers of fingerprint records are received daily from the Army, Navy, Coast Guard and affiliated military and naval organizations, from the Civil Service Commission of the United States Government, from law enforcement officials and many prints are being received through law enforcement agencies of persons who are endeavoring to secure employment in national defense industry. It is absolutely essential that these prints be handled promptly, that they be searched through our files and if any of these individuals have previous criminal or police records, that the official Government or law enforcement agency be so advised.

It has been noted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation from a review of fingerprint records received that on a number of occasions those having subversive or other inclinations inimical to the best interests of our country have endeavored to infiltrate, not only into our national defense industries, but into our armed forces so that through devious efforts they might slow down the successful war effort.

In addition to the aforementioned activities, the Technical Laboratory of the Federal Bureau questigation, staffed with so tists of proven experience and ability, are performed duties approximately 100% of the time pertaining to sabotage and espionage activities carried on within the borders of our country by those having the Axis interests at heart. Hundreds of cases are received daily in the Technical Laboratory having to do with secret codes, cryptographs, hidden messages, the sabotaging of national defense industry, airplanes, trains and component parts thereof, which evidence must be immediately handled so that the successful war effort of this country can be continued. This work, of course, cannot be continued if qualified technical personnel is not available to handle it.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation at the present time has an authorized ceilng of employees of 13,700. We are approximately 1,200 people short at this time and every effort is being put forth to secure the necessary personnel to fill the positions authorized. This personnel is not being recruited for the mere purpose of filling an authorized quota. It is being recruited because it is absolutely essential, if we are to continue to remain in a current status in so far as our work is concerned, that sufficient personnel be employed to handle the most important tasks being referred to the Bureau for attention today. The investigative work of the Federal Bureau of Investigation is in a delinquent status. The investigative staff, during the last fiscal year, performed uncompensated overtime totalling 3,814,380 hours, and, considering an average staff of approximately 4,500 people performing this overtime over and above the 48 hour week, it can be seen that every effort is being expended by the present investigative personnel of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to maintain the work of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in a current status.

It is essential that the fingerprint records and the technical evidence being forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for handling be promptly handled and the need for personnel at the Seat of Government mainly stems from the Identification Division wherein the fingerprint records are handled. All employees being recruited for the Identification Division are female. We have not recruited any draft-eligible male employees for such activities for the past several years. The appropriation for the Federal Bureau of Investigation for the next fiscal year is still pending and it cannot at this time be definitely stated the number of personnel which will be allowed for our activities then.

Reference is made to the attached memorandum received from Mr. Tom C. Clark, Assistant Attorney General, commending Special Agent Moore for his work in connection with the cases entitled "Eugene Jacob Einsiedel; Denaturalization Proceedings - G" and "Frank Arlic; Denaturalization Proceedings - G".

The Bureau files in these two cases reflect that they were apparently assigned to Special Agent Moore during January of 1944 for the purpose of completing the remaining investigation and preparing summary reports for the use of the United States Attorney. The instant investigations have, of course, been long drawn out as is true in most of the denaturalization cases, inasmuch as they originally started as "Security Matter" investigations several years ago. Special Agent Moore did a good job of reviewing the files and discovering new witnesses who were able to testify concerning damaging evidence against both subjects. He was most exhaustive in his investigative efforts in finding new witnesses and did a very thorough and complete job in this respect.

Both of the instant cases were previously assigned to numerous Agents assigned at the Indianapolis Office; however, some of the better witnesses were never contacted until located and questioned by Agent Moore.

The petitions to cancel the subjects' naturalization certificates were filed in each case many months ago; however, the investigation conducted by Agent Moore in each of these cases proved valuable to the Government's

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR. FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION.

RE: Eugene Jacob Einsiedel; Frank Arlic: _ Denaturalization Proceedings.

Miss Gendy. The above two cases were scheduled for trial in Fort Wayne, Indiana, on the 18th and 19th of February, respectively. At the time his case was called for trial, Einsiedel, through his attorney, surrendered his certificate. Arlic, who was not represented by counsel, after approximately one trial day, informed the court that he no longer wished to contest the matter and surrendered his certificate in open court.

We wish to call your attention to the outstanding investigative work done by Special Agent Don (Moore, who, having arrived in Fort Wayne shortly before the trial of these cases, was assigned to the completion of their investigation. It is our understanding that Mr. Moore did a portion of the investigative work in connection with the Bund cases at Buffalo, new York, before his assignment to Fort Wayne.

While the Einsiedel case was thought by this Division to be the best case in that district, there were many weaknesses. Through the efforts of Mr. Moore, approximately forty-five witnesses were produced who were prepared to testify. to extremely damaging statements and activities by the defendant. covering a period from before his naturalization until well after Pearl Harbor. Up until the time that Mr. Moore under took the investigation, practically all of the evidence related to that period between his naturalization and prior to Pearl Harbor. Obviously the witnesses secured by Mr. Moore improved the Government's case materially, since the courts have stressed the importance of statements subsequent to the time the United States entered the war and since it has always been true that statements prior to and at the time of naturalization are the best evidence in cases of this type

In the Arlic case, we were, up until a short time before trial, in doubt as to whether or not the case was sufficiently strong to be tried. At the completion of Mr. Moore's investigation there was no doubt in our minds that the case could be successfully prosecuted, since he had produced a large number of additional witnesses whose testimony related to periods close to naturalization and subsequent to Pearl Harbor.

We call this matter to your attention in appreciation of the unusual results produced by Mr. Moore in these investigations.

Respectfully,

RE: DONALD E. MOORE
SPECIAL AGENT

ANNUAL EFFICIENCY REPORT

A. DONALD E. MOORE arrived at the Indianapolis Field Office in October, 1943 from the Buffalo Field Division. Prior to his assignment in Buffalo he was assigned in New York City. It is to be observed that this agent has been Resident Agent at Fort Wayne, Indiana since November, 1943. During the recent inspection of the Indianapolis Office this agent made a grade of 95 on the manual examination.

Mr. MOORE presents a good appearance. He is neat in dress and has a good personality. He is a qualified Bureau speaker and seems to have enthusiasm, aggressiveness-and-resourcefulness in his investigations. He tries hard to do a good job.

B. This agent is rated as an excellent dictator by the stenographers of the Indianapolis Field Office. He drives an automobile satisfactorily. He makes a good witness for the Government. This agent uses firearms with better than average ability and I would not hesitate to assign him to matters of a dangerous nature. He satisfactorily handles physical surveillances. He uses the typewriter sufficiently well to prepare satisfactory rough draft reports. He does not take shorthand. His reports are very good and need a minimum of supervision. His investigations are thorough and intelligently and logically handled.

This agent is an excellent contact men for the office. He has the ability to initiate his investigations, accepts responsibility, and needs a minimum of supervision in dispatching his assignments.

C. This agent has been assigned to all types of investigations since being a Resident Agent. However, he has had more investigations pertaining to security matters and denaturalization cases than any other type of classification handled by the Bureau. The United-States Attorney for the Northern-District of Indiana has stated that in connection with the two denaturalization cases it was possibly the best-work ever done by an agent-of this service.

This agent definitely has administrative and executive ability.

E. This agent has not been assigned exclusively to a technical surveillance in the Indianapolis Office.

This agent is an asset to the Indianapolis Field Office and I feel he is entitled to the rating of Excellent.

Percy Wyly II

Special Agent in Charge

I have read the above report.

SUBJECT:

RESIDENT AGENCIES

INDIANAPOLIS FIELD OFFICE

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated August 22, 1944 which requested that each Resident Agency in this Division be separately justified. The Bureau is advised that at the present time there are five Resident Agencies in the Indianapolis Field Division.

The Hammond Resident Agency had 235 cases pending as of September 1, 1944, and it is believed that due to the industrial area and encentration of negroes and foreign element six Resident Agents should be designated for this agency. At present there are only four. It is my recommendation that Special Agent DONALD E. MOORE, who is now Resident Agent at Fort Wayne, be designated as Resident Agent at Hammond. Indiana. This agent is an experienced agent and seems to have the ability to get along well with Police Officers, which are the two qualifications for Resident Agents at Hammond. As soon as Resident Agency material develops in the Indianapolis Field Office the Bureau will be advised of my recommendation relative to the sixth Resident Agent at Hammond. In the meantime, I intend to permit one agent to make road trips in the Hammond Territory, with headquarters at Indianapolis.

The Resident Agency at Evansville, Indiana had pending, as of September 1, 1944, 110 cases. I am of the opinion that two Resident Agents can handle this resident agency for former Special Agents EVANS L. CHAPPLE and EMMET J. MURPHY were handling the assignments in Evansville satisfactorily prior to their recent resignations. In a review of the personnel of the Indianapolis Field Office I fail to find available Resident Agent material. Special Agents L. E. BROWN, E. V. KNARTZER and L. E. KUYKENDALL are good Resident Agent material; however, did to the reasons by which Mr. KUYKENDALL was transferred to Indianapolis I am of the opinion he should work in the headquarters city, and Agents BROWN and KNARTZER have family problems which necessitate their residing in Indianapolis.

In view of the above I intend to work the Evansville Resident Agency by road trips until Resident Agent material develops:

The Fort Wayne Resident Agency, as of September 1, 1944, had a case load of 68 cases and three Resident Agents. I am of the opinion that two resident agents can handle the case load at this Resident Agency and, therefore, I recommended above that Agent DONALD E. MOORE be transferred to the Hammond Resident Agency.

The South Bend Resident Agency had 78 cases pending as of September 1, 1944. There is only one Resident Agent presently assigned to South Bend. I am of the opinion that an additional Resident Agent is necessary to handle the work at this time, due to the Communist activities and national defense plants which are habitually having sabotage complaints, as well as the regular general investigative work. I intend to recommend another Resident Agent for South Bend just as soon as resident agent material develops in the Indianapolis Field personnel. For the present I intend to assist the resident agent at South Bend by having an agent work in South Bend and surrounding territory on road trips out of the Indianapolis office.

Director

The Terre Haute Resident Agency had 31 cases pending as of September 1, 1944. Terre Haute is located on the border between Indiana and Illinois and also has a Federal Penitentiary in its midst; therefore, I am of the opinion that a Resident Agent should be maintained in this city. Former Special Agent FRANK M. PFEIFER had previously been designated as Resident Agent at Terre Haute; however, he submitted his resignation, effective September 15, 1944.

Terre Haute, Indiana is approximately 70 miles from Indianapolis and I intend to work this territory by road trips until Resident Agent material develops, at which time I will furnish the Bureau with my recommendations.

Appeal Procedure

Any person entitled to do so may take an appeal to the board of appeal within 10 days after the above date of mailing of Notice of Classification to registrant in either of the following ways:

- (1) By filing with the local board a written notice of appeal. Such notice need not be in any particular form but must state the name of the registrant and the name and identity of the person appealing so as to show the right of appeal.
- (2) By signing the "Appeal to Board of Appeal" on the Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40).

The person appealing may attach to his notice of appeal or to the Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40) a statement specifying the respects in which he believes the local board erred, may direct attention to any information in the registrant's file which he believes the local board has failed to consider or give sufficient weight, and may set out in full any information which was offered to the local board and which the local board failed or refused to include in the registrant's file.

Appeal to the President from classification by the board of appeal may be taken at any time within 10 days after the date of mailing of notice to registrant, provided the registrant was classified by the board of appeal in either Class I-A, Class I-A-O, or Class IV-E and one or more members of the board of appeal dissented from such classification. Otherwise, the decision of the board of appeal is final except when an appeal is taken to the President either by the State Director of Selective Service or the Director of Selective Service on the ground that he deems it to be in the national interest or necessary to avoid an injustice.

RE: DONALD E. MOORE

SPECIAL AGENT

ANNUAL EFFICIENCY REPORT

SPECIAL AGENT DONALD E. MOORE REPORTED TO THE INDIANAPOLIS FIELD OFFICE IN OCTOBER, 1943. HE HAD BEEN ASSIGNED PREVIOUSLY TO THE NEW YORK AND BUFFALO FIELD DIVISIONS.

SPECIAL AGENT MOORE PRESENTS A VERY GOOD APPEARANCE. HE IS OVER AVERAGE SIZE AND BUILD. HE IS NEAT IN HIS DRESS, HAS A GOOD, EVEN AND LIKEABLE DISPOSITION, MAKES FRIENDS WITH HIS FELLOW-EMPLOYEES, AND IS AGGRESSIVE, RESOURCEFUL AND ALERT.

AGENT MOORE HAS BEEN RATED BY THE STENOGRAPHERS OF THE INDIANAPOLIS FIELD OFFICE AS BEING AN OUTSTANDING DICTATOR. HE OPERATES AN AUTOMOBILE SATISFACTORILY AND MAKES AN OUTSTANDING WITNESS FOR THE GOVERNMENT. MR. MOORE USES FIREARMS WITH BETTER THAN AVERAGE ABILITY AND I WOULD NOT HESITATE TO ASSIGN HIM TO MATTERS OF A DANGEROUS NATURE. HE SATISFACTORILY HANDLES PHYSICAL SURVEILLANCES. THIS AGENT OPERATES A TYPEWRITER SUFFICIENTLY WELL TO PREPARE SATISFACTORY ROUGH DRAFT REPORTS; HOWEVER, HE DOES NOT TAKE SHORTHAND.

AGENT MOORE'S REPORTS REFLECT THOUGHT AND THEY ARE GOOD AS TO FORM AND SUBSTANCE. HE NEEDS A MINIMUM OF SUPERVISION.

MR. MOORE ASSUMED THE DUTIES OF A RESIDENT AGENT IN THE INDIANAPOLIS FIELD DIVISION IN NOVEMBER, 1943 AND HE HAS HANDLED HIS DUTIES IN AN OUTSTANDING MANNER. AS A RESIDENT AGENT HE HAS BEEN ASSIGNED ALL TYPES OF INVESTIGATIONS, PARTICULARLY THOSE COMING WITHIN THE CLASSIFICATIONS OF SELECTIVE SERVICE, GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE AND INTERNAL SECURITY MATTER. THIS AGENT CAN SATISFACTORILY MEET LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS AND BUSINESS EXECUTIVES.

MR. MOORE HAS THE ABILITY TO INITIATE HIS INVESTIGATIONS AND TO HANDLE HIS ASSIGNMENTS WITH DISPATCH. HE HAS SUPERVISORY AND ADMINISTRATIVE ABILITY.

AGENT MOORE HAS BEEN USED AS A RELIEF MAN IN CONNECTION WITH A TECHNICAL SURVEILLANCE BEING MAINTAINED IN THE INDIANAPOLIS FIELD OFFICE, SINCE JANUARY 1, 1945. HE AVERAGES APPROXIMATELY TEN DAYS A MONTH ON THIS SURVEILLANCE. HE HAS HANDLED HIS ASSIGNMENT IN THIS REGARD SATISFACTORILY.

I AM SATISFIED WITH THE PROGRESS MADE BY THIS AGENT AND FEEL HE IS ENTITLED TO THE RATING OF EXCELLENT.

HAVE READ THE ABOVE REPORT.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

RE: DONALD E. MOORE
SPECIAL AGENT
ANNUAL EFFICIENCY REPORT

Agent MOORE is 29 years of age. He entered on duty as a Special Agent on March 10, 1941 and has been assigned to the Indianapolis Office since October, 1943. He is Resident Agent at Hammond, Indiana.

Agent MOORE presents a well-groomed appearance. He has a rugged physique, dresses well, and has a warm, friendly personality. He has a sound knowledge of all phases of the Bureau's work and handles his assignments with good judgment and aggressiveness. He is capable of assuming responsibility, proceeds on his own initiative with only a minimum of supervision and, in general, is a thoroughly dependable and cooperative agent. He is an excellent dictator, a capable automobile driver and is well qualified as a witness. He handles firearms in a very capable manner and I would have no hesitancy in using him on dangerous assignments. He could also be used on physical surveillances. He uses the typewriter with limited skill, but does not take shorthand.

This Agent's reports are well prepared and need only a minimum of supervision. He is well known and highly regarded by law enforcement officials and other business contacts in the are covered by his resident agency. He assumes full responsibility for the development of work in his territory and the initiating and carrying through investigations. He has had substantial experience on national defense work, but has for the past year spent the major portion of his time on general and criminal investigative matters. He has not been assigned to any special squad work or technical surveillances.

This Agent has had no opportunity to demonstrate ability along supervisory or administrative lines, but he could probably be developed along these lines. All in all this Agent handles his work in a highly satisfactory manner.

Rating: EXCELLENT.

SAC DALTON: The comments on the sheets will be discussed with the various agents in order that improvement can be made in their dictation ability.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Re: DONALD E. MOORE
SPECIAL AGENT
ANNUAL EFFICIENCY REPORT

Agent MOORE presents an excellent appearance and dresses neatly at all times. He has plenty of force and aggressiveness and carries out his assignments with initiative and resourcefulness. He has a very likable personality and gets along very well with everyone with whom he comes in contact.

This agent is an excellent dictator and his paper work requires a minimum of supervision. His reports are well organized and well prepared. He operates an automobile in an expert manner and, although I have not heard him testify, I believe he would make an excellent witness. He is well qualified to handle dangerous assignments and to operate on physical surveillances. He operates a typewriter with sufficient skill to prepare neat rough-draft reports. He is well liked by law-enforcement officials and others with whom he comes in contact. He organizes his work effectively and accepts responsibility readily. He seems to be in excellent physical condition.

Agent MOORE is assigned as Resident Agent at Hammond, Indiana, and handles a wide variety of criminal investigations chiefly in Gary, Indiana. He seems well qualified to handle practically any type of criminal case which may arise. This agent has not had an opportunity to demonstrate supervisory or administrative ability. However, it is definitely felt that he has ability along these lines.

This agent is alert and intelligent, and I consider him an excellent agent in CAF 12.

N. H. McCABE, SAC.

I have read this report.

PORCONAL AND COMPRESSIVAL

AGLIT PORCONNOL TO BU CONSIDERED ON LONG BAUGH LASIS FOR DEVILOPMENT AS SPECIAL AGLUTS IN CHARGE

Roference is made to SAC Letter $51 dated April 26, 1947.

It is recommended that the following agents assigned to this office be considered for development as Special Agents in Chargo.

JOIN E. NINDY. This Agent presents an excellent personal appearance and has considerable outhusiasm and drive. He is extremely alert and is a considerations and hard working employee. I consider him one of the best Agents assigned to this office and it is definitely felt that he has supervisory and administrative ability. It is recommended that he be considered for an assignment as a Tureau Supervisor as a part of his development as a Special Agent in Charge.

Divided E. HUNCA, Special Agent HOUSE presents an excellent personal appearance and is doing an excellent job as Resident Agent in Harmond, Indiana. To is intolligent, uses good judgment and has an excellent personality. The Assistant United States Attorney at Fort Wayne, Indiana, recently went out of his way to compent on the ability of this Agent. In my opinion, this agent definitely has supervisory and administrative ability, and it is recommended that he be considered for assignment as a Eureau Supervisor to further his development as a potential Special Agent in Charge.

RECERT E. PASAUSSEN. Special Agent RACMUSCH prosents an excellent personal appearance and is definitely above average in intelligence. He has been Resident Agent at South Bend, Indiana for several years and is extremely well regarded by the law enforcement officials in his territory and also by the people at Hotre Dame University where he has developed many excellent contacts. Epocial Agent PASHUSSEN is level-headed and has handled several important cases at South Bend. It is recommended that he be considered for assignment as a Eureau Supervisor to further his development as a potential Special Agent in Charge.

IANICACE E. DRAW. This Agent is a well rounded Agent who is able to handle any type of investigation. I consider him one of the best Agents that we have assigned to this office and have complete confidence in him. Agent BRAM is alort and intelligent and is outstanding in every respect. At the present time this Agent's wife is progrant and his mether-in-law has recently been seriously ill. These conditions might make it undesirable to move him at the present time, however, it is felt that by next fall he will be available for assignment as a Tureau Cubervisor or possibly a position as Assistant Special Agent in Charge. I have been very much impressed by Agent BRIM's work and feel that he should be given consideration for advancement in the near future.

CLYPT P. ACTIVIDE. This Agent presents an excellent appearance and is extremely alort and intelligent. He has an excellent personality and makes a splendid impression in contacting people. Special Agent ACTIVIDE is Resident Agent at Fort Eayne, Indiana and in addition to being an excellent investigator, also has accounting ability. It is recommended that he be given consideration for assignment as a Eureau Supervisor in order to train him as a potential Special Agent in Charge.

We have several other excellent Agents assigned to this office who would be recommended were it not for the fact that personal conditions exist which would make it imagisable to move them at the present time.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

DONALD E. MOORE Re: SPECIAL AGENT SPECIAL EFFICIENCY REPORT

Agent MOORE presents an excellent appearance. He has been a Resident Agent at Hammond, Indiana, handling a wide variety of investigations at Hammond and Gary. He is well qualified to handle any type of criminal case which might arise.

He is an excellent dictator, his paper work requires a minimum of supervision and his reports are well organized and well prepared. He is well qualified to handle dangerous assignments, being above average in firearms ability. He prepares neat rough drafts, operates an automobile in an expert manner and while I have not heard him testify, I believe he would make an excellent witness. He organizes his work well, accepts responsibility readily and while he has not had an opportunity to demonstrate supervisory ability, I have no doubt but that he has definite ability along these lines.

During his assignment as Resident Agent at Hammond and Gary, Indiana, he has made a number of contacts of value to the Bureau and the relationship between this office and the Gary police department is on a very high plain due in a large measure to Agent MOORE's daily contact with this department.

I consider him an excellent agent in CAF 12

Dear Mr. Moore:

The Burcau is in receipt of the report of the physical exemination afforded you at the United States Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland, on April 23, 1950.

This report reflects that you have defective vision of 20/50 in the right eye and 20/30 in the left eye, partially corrected to 20/20-3 in both eyes. This was also noted on your previous physical examination.

The Board of Examining Physicians of the United States Naval Hospital reports that you are capable of performing strenuous physical exertion and have no physical defects that would interfere with your participation in raids or other work involving the practical use of firearms.
